The Banner firepot extracts every unit of heat from the fuel.

THE ability of a Banner Furnace, or indeed any furnace, to diffuse warmth is only limited by the extent of its radiating surface. In the Banner Firepot this area is unusually large.

The flanges on the sides, by increasing the radiating surface, allow more air to come in contact with the sources of heat and thus distribute a greater quantity of warmth to the rooms above. This means more heat for the house and less for the chimney.

The flanges, moreover, strengthen the firepot as well as increase its radiating surface. We have never yet had to replace a Banner firepot. Some other noteworthy advantages of the Banner are:

- Large Firing Door.
- Opening ready for immediate insertion of water pipes without drilling.
- Deep flue to keep you clean when shaking down ashes.
- Safety gas-damper.
- Handy clean out door in radiator.

We supply free of charge complete plans of installation and employ competent heating engineers to prepare them. A copy of our booklet "How to Choose a Furnace" will help you solve your heating problem.

Wellington THE UNIVERSAL PIPE

The Wellington is a storehouse of good smokes—clean, cool and dry. Three things about a Wellington make it so. First, the well catches all moisture and stray tobacco. Second, the top-opening bit sends the smoke up—away from the tongue. And third—which is mighty important—the Wellington is a WDC Pipe, of genuine French briar, guaranteed against cracking or burning through. All good dealers sell Wellingtons in all shapes and sizes $1.00 and up.

SPIRITUALISM WAS AIRED IN SYNOD

QUESTION DISCUSSED AT CHURCH OF ENGLAND CONGRESS

Leicester, Eng., Oct. 15.—The congress of the Church of England to-day held a warm debate over spiritualism which started through an attack from the Very Rev. William R. Inge, dean of St. Paul, London, who is known to the newspapers as the "gloomy" because of his somewhat despondent views on present day life.

Very Rev. James E. C. Welldon, Dean of Durham and one of two other very prominent clergymen made a partial defence of spiritualism and the Archbishop of Canterbury said the entire subject would be considered by the bishops when the Lambeth Conference meets next year.

"If," said Dean Inge, "this kind of after-life were true—that portrayed in the pitiable revival of necromancy in which many desolate hearts have sought spurious satisfaction—it would indeed be a melancholy postponement or negation of all we hope and believe about our dead."

TOO LATE. Dean Welldon said: "It is too late to dismiss spiritualism as a fraud—or as some say, a nauséous fraud."

The dean added that the spiritualists phenomena has won the assent of men of science like Crookes, Lodge, Flammarion, and Lombroso, and continued: "I take it that the evidence is good that the foundations of Edgar's 'Chapel at Glastonbury' were discovered through communications received by automatic writing. I think spiritualism has come to fill a void in church, practice and because of the coldness in the services."

PRICE-TAGGED HIS STORE IN PROFITS

ugh McWilliams's successors from the night he slipped outside his store and overheard the remarks of two men who stopped to look in the window—and passed on.

It was all a question of the little price tags which were not there.

When he had moved his stock of clothing, trunks, and gent's furnishing goods to the new location in Miami, Okla., he had high hopes for there was coin and to spare for another such establishment. He was a good salesman and he employed competent clerks. He brought with him the same of "a good nan to deal with."

And this proved true enough with those permanently located there and those who happened to come from his former location, but as in all mining cities, people "came and went." In a locality of strangers "Mac" failed to do as well as he had a right to expect.

One evening, after closing hours he happened to be standing in front of his store when two men stopped for a moment to admire the really splendid values there displayed.

"Good stuff, that," said one. Just look at that brown suit, that shirt, that pair of shoes and that tie" (pointing at each in turn). "Wouldn't that make a swell outfit?"

"It sure would," answered his friend, "but he's got no mark on them to show what they are priced at. They probably cost more than we could pay."

He had solved the problem. People wished to see the price of an article that struck their fancy, and not be compelled to ask for it. Yes, he had a good stock, splendid value, attractive displays, but they were not "marked."

That was all very well for his old home town, where every one knew him and his reputation for square dealing, but it wouldn't work in this "city of strangers."

McWilliams now has not only his window display plainly priced, but each and every article in the store no matter how insignificant. All who enter may read.

The first month after "decorating" his stock with price tags his trade increased fully 20 per cent. And since in six months, it has doubled.

WELLESLEY.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Becker of Preston were visitors with Chas. Koehler. Mrs. S. Schopp and Mrs. Chas. Koehler spent a few days at Hanover. Mr. W. B. West and family of Penetang are with Louis Schaub. A. E. Reiner and family spent a week at Cortwright with Mrs. Reiner's parents.

The Independent Liberal candidate Mr. Amussen came here on Monday and spoke to the electors. His words were well received and he will no doubt receive most substantial support on the part of the electors. Mr. Epler, M.P., came with Mr. Amussen and his address was likewise highly appreciated. The same applies to the speeches of the other gentlemen who addressed the gathering. There were 150 people in attendance. On the way to Wellesley Mr. Amussen held a short meeting in Bamberg which was attended by 65 voters.

This week we will have political meetings nearly every night—Louis Kee of Guelph, former foreman in the local flour mill, is making a visit here.

Lizzie, daughter of the late H. Zuehl, who removed from here to Fargo, Mich., 35 years ago, is here on a visit. She is greatly surprised at the changes that have taken place since—Conrad Becker installed a new boiler in his mill. He will start making apple butter this week.—Last Sunday the Thanksgiving services took place. The offering was very satisfactory.—Next Sunday Rev. Dr. Hoffman of Toronto will preach in Rev. Alberti's congregation at the Thanksgiving service.—Alb. Berach, E. Reiner and F. Wagner have each bought an auto for $2500.

We Told You So!

Further Proof that 2.51% Beer is Non-Intoxicating

Conclusive Findings of Interest to Ontario Voters

IN a news despatch to the Toronto World last Saturday, announcement was made for the first time of the result of exhaustive tests made by Professors H. L. Hollingworth and R. S. Woodworth of Columbia University, New York, into the effects of 2.75% Beer on the human system.

The tests were made upon six students of the law school over a period of twelve days. A corps of assistants, men and women, collaborated with the two professors of psychology in conducting the elaborate experiments that had been devised.

"The effect of the beer on the students was said to have been almost negligible," says the despatch.

Word has just come from Wisconsin that as the result of a test case, the courts of that State have declared beer of 2.75% alcoholic content by weight measure to be non-intoxicating. As a result of this decision 2.75% beer is now on general sale throughout Wisconsin.

The 2.75 per cent. beer proven non-intoxicating by the professors of Columbia University, and declared non-intoxicating by the Wisconsin Courts, is .24 per cent. stronger than the Beer of the Ballot—the 2.51 per cent. beer for which you are asked to vote October 20th. These findings must be conclusive to every man and woman who has an open mind—who is willing to vote on the truth as proven.

How absurd it is then for the Referendum Committee to continue to declare that this mild and light beverage is intoxicating.

This is the non-intoxicating beer that Labor in particular is demanding. Is there any fair or just reason why you should stand in the way of the working men obtaining their favorite beverage? Just because the beverage is labelled "Beer", is no reason for you voting against it. This is not a time for prejudice but a give-and-take spirit that sees the "other fellow's" viewpoint. Give the working men the more palatable and nourishing, yet non-intoxicating beer they are asking for.
