

AMARANTHS DEFEATED

Best Game Played This Season

Score a Tie at the End of Seventh Inning—Civil Service Makes Winning Run.

For a half hour last night it was a question whether or not there would be a game of baseball as per schedule. Every five minutes there would be a sprinkle of rain as though warning was being given the players not to begin or the floodgates of heaven would be open. After delaying about a half hour it was decided to play seven innings unless driven from the field by the rain and the play was begun. It was the best game so far played this season and it looks now as though there would be some real ball put up very soon. At the end of the seventh inning the score was tied and another was played to decide the question of supremacy resulting in a victory for the Civil Service by the narrow margin of but one score.

A new man appeared on each side, Delfel substituting for Shannon of the Civil Service, who is taking part in "Erminie" and could not play, and Long taking the place of Billy Long on the Amaranths. The first named played short and Foichat went in the box. Leroy Tozier again umpired and his decisions gave the utmost satisfaction, receiving the fullest respect from all the players. There was not a very large crowd present as so many feared there would be no game on account of the threatening condition of the weather.

starting their victorious score—by a lonely one. Bennett sent in a liner to second and expired reaching the first bag. MacLean took a walk on a dead ball and scored on the hit of Dundas who sacrificed at first. Delfel also went out at first. After the Amaranths had had their share of the inning, their stock went up fifty per cent, for they ground out five before they could be headed off. James fanned but managed to make first on a bad mull of Bennett and a wild throw immediately afterward. Steinkamp drove a beaut of a fly into the hands of Harrison in center field and retired gracefully. Nelson got his base on balls and Foichat made a single he was not entitled to. Winters on the first bag fielded the hit and when he got the ball in his mit there was no one on the base with whom action could be had. Bad error as it not only allowed the batter to make first but James scored on the dinky little hit also. Douse took his base after being soaked in the ribs by one of Brazier's twisters and Hickey went to the plate with the bags full. He was good for a two bagger which combined with a bad fumble by Dundas allowed two men to score. Nelson and Foichat. Long placed a sizzler in right field that brought Hickey home. Heacock went out on a fly to Winters and Harrison scored his second out in the inning by pulling down a fly from Latimer's bat, retiring the side.

In the second one was all the Civil Service could find. Fitzgerald pounded air and Winters hit for a single, scoring a moment later on an overthrow of the catcher. McKay fanned and so did Harrison, though the latter managed to reach first on a mull and overthrow of the catcher. Brazier drove a liner to third, went out at first leaving Harrison to sit on second. In their half the Amaranths were presented with a goose egg.

But goose eggs were the order and a large round one was handed the Amaranths on their half of the inning. James going out on a fly to center, Steinkamp reaching first on error of Winters to die later at the home plate, and Nelson going out at second.

The third inning resulted in two more goose eggs, as did also the first half of the fourth to the Service, the Amaranths closing the inning by one score made by Latimer.

When the Service team came to the bat for the fifth there was blood on the horizon and before they retired Harrison, Bennett and Dundas had each safely passed the home plate, not only evening up the score but giving the Service one for velvet.

The Amaranths went to the bat to go out in one, two, three order, retiring with another big egg.

In the sixth Harrison and Brazier scored for the Service and the Amaranths took up the bat only to lay it down again without adding a score.

The service piled up one run, by Delfel, in its half of the seventh. The Amaranths buckled their belts up to the last hole and sailed in on their half, adding two to the score by Douse and Hickey circling the diamond.

The seventh inning left the game a tie, each side having a run to its credit.

Another inning settled it, the Service adding three to its former eight and the Amaranths but two, giving the Civil Service the game by one hard-earned score.

The score by innings was as follows:

Civil Service—1 1 0 0 3 2 1 3—11
Amaranth ..... 5 0 0 1 0 0 2 2—10

The following is the lineup of the two teams:

Civil Service—Bennett, catcher; McLean, left field; Dundas, second base; Delfel, shortstop; Fitzgerald, third base; Winters, first base; McKay, right field; Harrison, center field; Brazier, pitcher.

BIG HEARTED TOM CHISHOLM

Has Leased Business to Colin McDonald

Will Devote His Time to Mining
Interests—Pioneer Business Man of Dawson.

Tom Chisholm, the best known business man of Dawson, having been actively engaged since early in the spring of 1898, has leased his saloon business for one year to Colin McDonald who is also very well known as well as very popular, he having been head man of the night shift at the Aurora for the past two years.

Mr. Chisholm has extensive mining interests on the creeks to which he will devote his attention for the coming year except for a few months which he proposes spending on the outside the coming winter.

Ever since he has been in business in Dawson Tom Chisholm has to a certain extent been an easy mark for there is no doubt but that he has had more calls for "the price of a meal" than any other two men in the city and the price was usually forthcoming. That his mining operations may net him millions is the wish of thousands whom he had befriended when he was in a position to do so.

JOHN ROBERT HAS SKIPPED

Jumped His Bail to the Amount of $1,500

Left in Small Boat for American Territory Monday Night With the Count.

John Robert, the man who was arrested in the Barlett house raid and who was later convicted and sentenced to six months imprisonment and to pay $50 and costs by Mr. Justice Macaulay, from which sentence he appealed and was released on cash bail in the sum of $1,500 pending hearing in the territorial court, which hearing would have come up next week, has, like the Arab, folded his tent and silently stolen away, having, it is believed by the police, decamped from Dawson for down river Monday night in a small boat.

Count Emile de Rourell, boon companion and bosom friend of Robert, has not been seen for the past two days and is believed to have accompanied the latter.

As six months is the maximum punishment, according to Dominion law, that can be imposed on a man guilty of living from the avails of prostitution, no effort will be made to bring Robert back and his bail money will go to the crown.

Before being released on bail Robert paid the fine of $50 and costs, in all $100, making his escapade cost him, or the women who put up for him, $1,600.

Missing Barber

Editor Nugget:
Dear Sir—Mrs. Emile Streich in Zittau, Saxony, Germany, is anxious to know the whereabouts of her husband Max Friedrich Franz Streich, barber, born October 7th, 1874, in Grabow, near Stettin, Pomerania, Germany. Streich is supposed to have gone to Alaska three years ago.

Publishing the above in your paper you will greatly oblige.

Yours very truly,

WALTER WENSKY,
Imperial German Consul.

Letters to be called for at Rudy's drug store have been received at the German consulate for Heinrich Kuchelbeiser from C. Geiss, Wiesbaden, and for John Shirk from Max Shirka.

Resume of Work Accomplished by Council

Seventeen Bills Were Presented of Which Seven Passed, the Balance Deferred.

From the mass of bills, resolutions, motions, etc., that were dealt with by the Yukon council during its two week session the territorial clerk is at last able to restore some kind of order and this morning furnished to press with a brief resume of the ordinances that were presented and those which were passed. In all seventeen bills were handed in, seven of which passed and the others were carried over until the next session and are now in various stages of evolution. Some have passed the second reading and are ready for consideration by the committee of the whole while others have only gone through the first stage. The lien bill presented by Mr. Clarke was virtually killed though not by direct vote. The last point to which it reached in the consideration by the committee on civil justice to which it had been referred, the chairman of such committee in his report making so many suggestions and offering so many amendments agreed upon that the father of the original bill would have failed to recognize his own offspring had they been tracked on to it. Definite action was at last deferred until the next sittings of the council when the legal adviser will present an entirely new bill. The three bills presented by Mr. Thompson on behalf of the city will also at the next session come up for their final passage. The following is a brief resume of the seven bills that were passed and which become operative at once.

An ordinance to amend ordinance No. 15 incorporating the Dawson Amateur Athletic Association, Limited. Power is given the promoters to increase the capital stock of the company from $20,000 to $40,000.

An ordinance to amend the ordinance respecting the regulation of traffic on the highways. Affects the size of the load that may be hauled at certain periods of the year on the territorial roads and the width of tire that shall be used. The limiting of the use of but one team at such time is done away with. Wagons with but two inch tires during what might be called the closed season in the spring and fall, are allowed to haul but two tons at a load; three inch tires may haul three tons and four inch tires four tons.

An ordinance to amend the ordinance respecting the granting of money for the purpose of assisting in the development of mining in the Yukon territory. Places in the hands of the commissioner the sum of $35,000 to be by him expended in the exploitation principally of quartz and providing further for the establishment of a free assay office at Whitehorse and the monthly payment of $100 in support of such.

An ordinance to amend the ordinance respecting chemists and druggists. Fixes the time that apprentices are required to serve and also makes provision for the continuation in business of those who were already so engaged at the time of the passage of the original bill last fall.

An ordinance to amend the ordinance respecting intoxicating liquor. Reduces the liquor license fee of steamboats from $250 to $150.

An ordinance amending the ordinance respecting dogs. Increases the license from $2 to $4 and abolishes the clause compelling dogs to be muzzled at certain seasons of the year. This clause has no effect within the city of Dawson as the city council makes its own regulations as to the care of dogs.

An ordinance amending the ordinance respecting benevolent and other societies. Provides for the dissolving of such societies upon certain conditions.

The resolutions, motions, memorials and petitions the clerk has not as yet tabulated, but in another day or two they will be so arranged so that the work accomplished by the council can be seen at a glance.

SIX MONTHS FOR PAULSON

Convicted and Sentenced
Today

Irrefutable Proof That He Was Supported From Avails of Vice.

The old saying "Figures never lie" was verified in police court this morning before Mr. Justice Macaulay when Sigwald Rosafeld Paulson was tried convicted and sentenced to six months in the penitentiary on the charge of living from the avails of prostitution. In addition to doing six months time Paulson must also pay a fine of $50 and costs, and in default to serve three months additional time.

Addie Mantell, a resident of Klondike City, is the female who has much of the time for the past two years and four months, according to her own evidence, supported Paulson. Addie, being of a systematic turn of mind, keeps a cash book and ledger in which were noted her receipts and expenditures. Paulson's name appearing very often among the items of expense and outlay.

As the book was introduced as evidence and as both Paulson and the woman admitted that the entries therein were correct, no other evidence for conviction was needed although that of from ten to twelve witnesses was introduced.

Addie is also of an affectionate disposition as the following on one of the fly leaves of her ledger testifies:

"Sigwald Rosafeld Paulson is my darling sweet shuger lump and preshes darling since 1901, Feb 1 the life time long I trust to be friends and true companions and thank god if such be granted, to Addie Mantell."

"I write this on the 1 day of May 1903 his birthday is the 3 day of novemb he will be 23 his next birthday I be 24 on 17 day January 1775."

The girl testified that she had paid Paulson's way to Seattle when she went outside the fall of 1901 and back to Dawson in April of last year; that since she first met him in February, 1901, she had expended in the neighborhood of $2000 on him, and that for some time previous to his arrest she had purchased all the provisions to feed the two of them and Paulson did the cooking. They ate in his cabin which is half a block from hers. Her ledger showed that on the 8th of the present month, just 10 days before he was arrested, she had given Paulson $30, this amount they both explained being to buy him a suit of clothes to assist him in obtaining a position as bar tender.

The witnesses for the prosecution were R. H. S. Creswell who had one time obtained judgment against Paulson for a cigar debt amounting to $105, Addie Mantell, Constable Carter, Corporal Piper and Edith Green.

Paulson essayed to prove that he is a business man of standing and repute by his own testimony and that of John Joslyn, Cliff Bollong, Richard Howe, L. Hagelson and Fred Kammueler, all of whom knew him as having been at one time proprietor of the Olympic bar in Dawson and the Bonanza hotel at Grand Forks. They knew nothing of his private life.

In passing sentence his lordship was very vigorous and scathing in his denunciation of men who live as Paulson had been proven to live.

THEY CELEBRATED

Two Victoria Day Aftermaths in Police Court

As an aftermath of the Victoria Day celebration Allan H. McLean and John Mooney were before Mr. Justice Macaulay in police court this morning, each with the charge "drunk and disorderly" opposite his name. McLean pleaded guilty and explained that in three years residence in this portion of the broad white north it was his first offense. He was dismissed with a warning. Mooney said: "I reckon I am guilty. 'Spose I got off wrong." He said he was up on a similar charge two years ago but in the interim has going out and coming in had been the quintessence of good behavior. As it was but the result of intoxication celebration he also was dismissed with a warning.
