

- XXXV. In appeals from any decree or order of the Court of Chancery, it shall be the duty of the appellant to bring the same to a hearing within the time following, that is to say : upon appeal from any decree or decretal order, within one year from the pronouncing of such decree or decretal order ; and upon appeal from any interlocutory order, not being a decretal order, within six calendar months from the pronouncing of the same, or within such further time as may be allowed for that purpose by the said Court of Error and Appeal, or by the Court of Chancery or a Judge thereof, upon special grounds shewn to the satisfaction of the Court or Judge granting the same : Provided always, that as to any decrees or orders which, under any general orders of the Court of Chancery, do not become absolute upon the same being pronounced, the time limited for appealing therefrom shall be computed from the time when the same shall have become absolute.
- Within what time appeals must be brought to a hearing.
- Proviso : delay to be reckoned from time when decree or order become absolute.

And with respect to the giving security in cases of appeal to Her Majesty, in Her Privy Council, and to costs in such cases of appeal ; Be it enacted as follows :

- XXXVI. Every Judge of the Court of Error and Appeal shall have authority to approve of and allow the Bond or other security to be given by any party who intends to appeal to Her Majesty in Her Privy Council, whether the application for such allowance be made during any of the terms appointed for the sitting of the said Court, or at any other time.
- Any Judge of the Court of Appeal and Error may allow the Bond, &c.

XXXVII. Any costs awarded by any decree or order of Her Majesty, in Her Privy Council, upon an appeal from the said Court of Error and Appeal, shall be recoverable by the same process as costs awarded by the said Court of Error and Appeal.

Recovery of costs awarded in Privy Council.

- XXXVIII. It shall be lawful for the Judges of the said Court, or any five or more of them, of whom the Chief Justice of the Court of Queen's Bench and the Chancellor shall be two, from time to time to make all such general rules and orders for the effectual execution of this Act, and of the intention and object thereof, and for fixing the costs to be allowed for and in respect of proceedings in the said Court, and for regulating the different proceedings in appeal, as to them may seem expedient for any of the said purposes ; and also from time to time to alter and amend any of the existing rules, or any rules to be made under the authority of this Act, and to make other rules instead thereof : Provided always, that until such rules are made, the present rules and the existing practice and mode of proceeding of and in the said Court, except so far as changed, modified and super-
- Judges in Error and Appeal to make rules for carrying this Act into effect, and tariff of fees under it.
- Proviso : present rules to apply until altered,
