CONSTIPATION

CURED BY THE USE OF MILBURN'S
LAXA-LIVER PILLS

Constipation is one of the most frequent, and at the same time, one of the most serious of the minor ailments to which mankind is subject, and should never be allowed to continue.

A free motion of the bowels daily should be the rule with every one who aspires to perfect health.

Mrs. Fred. Hall, 299 Hibernia Road, Montreal, Que., writes:—"Having been troubled for years with constipation and trying everything I knew of, a friend advised me to use Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. I used four and a half vials and I am completely cured. I can gladly recommend them to all who suffer from constipation.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25 cents per vial, or 5 vials for $1.00, at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Mr. J. DOIRON, Blue Cove, Gloucester
Co., N. B.

And we hear not their welcome songs, Yet we do not regret, in the shortening days,
The days we wish to prolong.
And the trees have changed from gold to green,
And marvelous beauties are ever seen.
In the afterglow.

When the sun sinks low in the west at night,
With its flaming colored sky,
We are lifted up from the toils of life
To a purer world on high.
And we gaze and wonder in depths untold; Dreaming what the future for us will hold.

In the afterglow.

Our hearts as the beauteous world around,
Seem to take a delightful rest,
And bask in affection's sweetest charms.
As we think of ones loved best.
And a longing unspeakable arises within To flee from the noise and bustle and din To the afterglow.

When our days are numbered in life's great field,
And our lives are almost fled, We look with rejoicing, far beyond To our still and silent bed.
And wait in trust for His will to decide,
For this time on earth we now abide,
Is the afterglow.

I am not averse to correspondence and should anyone care to write I will answer. I think it unnecessary to describe myself as I am only an ordinary person.
Hoping to see this in your columns, I remain, Yours faithfully, "G. C. H."

Here's a Lucky Chance for Some Bachelors.

Rosburn, Man.

Sir,—I see so many are writing to you that I thought I would write again. I suppose I had better do as the rest do and describe myself as I see myself in the glass. I am not a beauty by any means; I have big blue eyes, red cheeks and a lot of brown hair. Measure about 5 foot 4 inches and weight 125 pounds.
I am fond of sport of all kinds; can shoot, skate and dance. I love music and books but cannot play very much.
I can keep house and sew. I am a farmer's daughter and I am proud of it. I am in my twenties but have no notion of getting married yet. Of course I might change my mind if I met the right kind of a man, but I do not wish to meet him for some years yet. I think some girls are in too big a hurry to get married. I am very sorry for those poor bachelors but we have some here without going farther west. I like some of the letters very much. I quite agree with Carrots, of Kamloops, B.C., about girls chewing gum; I do hate to see it and also hate to see a man using tobacco. But tobacco is not bad compared with liquor. I intend going to B.C. first chance I get, as I would just love to go west. I have lots of friends there. Well I guess I had better stop or you will be getting tired. I will write to Carrots if he writes first. My name is "Temperance Sue."

Some Backbone in this Farmer.

Cooking Lake, Alta.

Sir,—The "Doctor," writing in the Correspondence columns says, "As months pass on we all grow wiser." He is right in one sense but wrong in another, if what I have been told is true. More than once I have been told (when I was suddenly taken bad with swelled head as most young fellows, including the "Doctor," are apt to be taken), that I will know less twenty years hence than I do at present. Most of you will be able to guess who gave me this piece of good advice. To me, his saying that he didn't think Mr. "Farmer" had any reason to be proud of his occupation is childish in the extreme. Another item I will mention for the "Doctor's" edification is, "If he doesn't know more about his own occupation than he seems to think he knows about farming he will be a valuable aid to the undertaker." If he is a farmer's son, he is one of those same eleven that he mentions who make themselves and everyone else about the farm miserable by their eternal grumbling

CURE YOUR CATARRH NOW!

Take it in hand at once. If you don't get rid of Catarrh now, in the spring there's certain peril ahead, for you'll meet the extreme trying weather coming with your system terribly weakened and undermined by this treacherous, poisonous trouble.
Remember—if you keep on neglecting Catarrh, later on it's sure to mean danger—disease—perhaps Death itself.

It's a horribly loathsome disease—is Catarrh.
It makes you an object of disgust to your friends —though they're usually too kind to tell you so.
As a matter of fact your hawking and spitting and constant nose-blowing fairly make them sick.
They turn away nauseated by your foul, fetid breath. Such things hurt you tremendously, not only at home but also with outsiders—with the people you meet in daily life.

But Catarrh is more than a loathsome trouble—it's a fearfully dangerous one. People make a terrible mistake in saying "Only Catarrh." It isn't "Only Catarrh"—it's CONSUMPTION if you don't stop it in time. Once the minute, abnormally active and poisonous Catarrh germs get a foothold in the lungs, there's no hope whatever for you. You're doomed to a Consumptive's grave —there's no escaping it.

Cure your Catarrh now before it becomes Consumption. Don't be discouraged if other doctors or the widely advertised so-called "Catarrh remedies" have failed to help you. Seek aid at once from one who thoroughly understands all about Catarrh and its cure. Accept the generously proffered help of Specialist Sproule, B. A., graduate in Medicine and Surgery, Dublin University, Ireland, formerly Surgeon British Royal Mail Naval Service) the great Catarrh Specialist known the world over. He will give you Don't be a nuisance to your friends, And that's just what you are,

With hawking, spitting, and a breath Made loathsome by Catarrh.
