The only reason we can suggest why the UNDERWOOD is more generally used in Canada than all other makes of typewriters combined, is that it is the best typewriter—and that sounds like a good reason.

PUBLISHERS' TALK

WE believe that this issue will prove to our twenty-five thousand readers that The Courier is progressive and ambitious. The changing from a five to a ten-cent publication takes time, and The Courier has by no means attained the full development which it is expected to reach under the new price arrangement. We hope to eclipse this issue many times before the year closes.

NEXT week we shall publish the first of two illustrated articles on the Police Forces of Canada. There are several classes of these and their characteristics differ. They have never received the attention they deserve and we hope these articles will do them credit. Canada is noted for the efficient and energetic enforcement of her laws and for a notable prevention of crime. These articles will partially explain why this is the case.

SEVERAL articles on the Maritime Provinces, with new and striking illustrations, are in preparation and will appear shortly. This portion of Canada will receive special attention in forthcoming issues.

GENERAL appreciation of Mr. Rider Haggard's excellent serial is the story of our daily mail. The interest is well maintained by the author and the later chapters will be found to be even more attractive than the earlier ones. We deem ourselves especially fortunate to be able to publish a new novel by so distinguished an author.
