

Still Life

KAPTAIN KA-CHING MANAGED TO SAVE A FEW BILLS LAST WEEK, SO HE'S GOING ON VACATION. THE KAPTAIN WILL BE BACK AFTER THE BREAK.

PAUL
WHITNEY
'84

DON'T WORRY JOHN, YOU'RE SAFE..... FOR NOW.
PLW.

upcomin'

THURSDAY, FEB. 23

The Victim/Witness of Crime Unit of the Fredericton Police Department will be hosting a workshop for potential volunteers at the Lord Beaverbrook Hotel, PETICODIAC Room at 8:30 a.m..

This workshop is designed to provide potential volunteers for our unit with background information on the Criminal Justice System, the Victim/Witness and the Community Agencies we rely upon.

Issues to be discussed will be: the benefits of Witness Services, Victim trauma and victimization, as well as the movie "View From the Shadows".

For further information, please phone 454-9701, EXT. 315, weekdays.

THURSDAY, MARCH 1

Meeting for those interested in working on the 1983-84 Yearbook. 7 p.m. in the Yearbook Office, SUB, Room 30.

The Fredericton Toastmistress Club will be holding its sixth annual speech contest on Monday, February 27th at 7:30 p.m. in the George Street Junior High School. Four club members will be participating in this event. Guests are welcome to attend.

For more information on the club and its activities, call Public Relations chairman Shelley Petley at 457-0702.

Bruce Daniel, a prominent businessman with many years' experience in industry, will be presenting a short, intensive course in "Effective Time Management of Small Business" on Feb. 23 and March 1.

For further details, call the University of New Brunswick Department of Extension at 453-4646, or drop in to the Extension Office in Room 121, MacLagan Hall.

Ballroom Dance Class: Foxtrot, Waltz, Jive. Three weeks starting Thursday, March 1 from 7:30 - 9:30 p.m. $10 for booklet and course at the SUB Ballroom.