Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 13th instant, stating that you have been informed by the Rev. Mr. Semmens, of the Methodist Church, that Mr. Sutherland must have made a mistake, in supposing that the Methodist Church desired that the site for the Industrial School should be in Southern Manitoba, and that Section 6, Township 5, West of the principal meridian - the site proposed for the institution - which is available for Industrial School purposes, is unsuited for that purpose, as it
