

Financial aspects will be explained by Minister of Finance when Bill before the House.

Important to realize: that Canada's utmost contribution to the victory of the United Nations cannot be exclusively military; that the more weapons Canada can deliver to the allied forces in addition to those needed for our own forces, the sooner the war will be won and the smaller will be the sacrifice of human life.