CHARGES AGAINST OFFICERS OR MEMBERS.

50. In the event of any officer or member being guilty of unworthy conduct, or in the event of any serious infringement of any of the rules of the club, the Board of Directors shall, upon a complaint being made in writing by two members setting forth the charges against such officer or member, send to such officer or member a copy of the said charge in a registered letter and call a general meeting of the club to take the same into consideration. If the majority of the members present at such general meeting find the charges proved, then
