

THE EARLY DAYS

Binding the earth with railway lines, netting the world with wires,

Leaving the mail at our corner-posts, pampering our desires ;

They show us that times are better, prove it a thousand ways,

But we think of the old-time comradeship and sigh for the early days.