The Man from Glengarry

A TALE OF THE OTTAWA. 12 MO. CLOTH $1.25

To have written "Black Rock" was to demonstrate genius. To have written "The Sky Pilot" was an achievement worthy of a great literary master. But "The Man from Glengarry" is Ralph Comor's most magnificent effort—thrilling, imspiring and ennobling. It is easily first among the author's works—he has come to full maturity. Everywhere is evident his subtle wit and pathos.

Aged and Esteemed Maple City Couple Will Shortly Leave Upon a Long Journey.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Andrew are well up in years, Mr. Andrew being in his 74th year, and Mrs. Andrew in her 71st year. The trip to Manitoba will be a long one for so old a couple. Mr. Andrew found it hardest to say good-bye to his faithful old horse, which has been in his service for nearly 27 years. He was careful to get a good comfortable home for old Tom with a Raleigh farmer. Mr Andrew has rented his place on Queen street to J. M. Gardiner.
