

Go to S. G. Read's No. 1 Bankrupt Store for Hosiery.

Muma, Henry, farmer.	Smith, Alexander, farmer.
Peck, Alman, carpenter.	Smith, George W., merchant.
Pollock, John, baker.	Smith, R. H., hotel-keeper.
Robertson, D., merchant.	Terryberry, J. G., M.D.
Rogers, James, general blacksmith.	Thompson, Mrs.
ROUNDS, DR. J. B., physician.	Tibeaudo, John W., stationmaster.
Scoonover, H., shingle maker.	Tree, John B., farmer.
Sharp, James, weaver.	Vanderlip, Wm., horse-dealer.
Shaw, D., carpenter.	Waters, J. J., laborer.
Smith, Abraham, weaver.	White, Mrs., widow.

CENTRAL HOTEL,

CORNER OXFORD AND WILMOT STS.,

Drumbo Village, Ont.

JOHN B. CAPRON, - - - Proprietor.

This first-class house is conveniently situated in the centre of the Village.

Every attention paid to guests stopping at this house. Liquors and Cigars of the best quality kept constantly on hand.

GOOD STABLING.

EASTWOOD,

A Post-Office in the Township of East Oxford, and station of the Great Western Railway, 4 miles from Woodstock. Mails daily. John Shaw, postmaster.

OXFORD CENTRE,

A Post-Office on Lot 14, 4th Concession, East Oxford, 5 miles from Woodstock. The town hall is in this village. Mails tri-weekly. Wm. Garbutt, postmaster.

When you buy your Dry Goods, Millinery, Mantles, &c., go to the Golden Fleece—W. Watson, Thames St., Ingersoll.