

to build a post office, court house and jail here.

DESERONTO, ONT.—W. J. Malley, Secretary Public School Board, will receive tenders up to April 30th for erection of school building.

CARLETON PLACE, ONT.—Willis Chipman, C.E., of Toronto, has been instructed to prepare plans for waterworks system for this town.

NASSAGAWEYA, ONT.—Rev. A. Blair will receive tenders up to May 15th for painting, decorating and glazing of St. David's church.

NIAGARA FALLS SOUTH, ONT.—It is said that a syndicate of real estate men contemplate building 25 houses in this village.

BRANTFORD, ONT.—The Board of Trade will petition the Dominion Government to improve the post office accommodation for this city.

PETERBORO, ONT.—Tenders are being taken on alterations and additions to Ontario Bank. Bond & Smith, Toronto, are the architects.

SUSSEX, N. B.—The fire wardens have defeated a proposal to ask the Legislature for power to borrow $20,000 for waterworks purposes.

ST. MARYS, ONT.—J. A. Humphris, architect, will receive tenders up to 11th inst. for erection of school house in Union S.S. No. 15th.

ORANGEVILLE, ONT.—Extensive improvements will be made to the rectory of St. Mark's church, of which Rev. Canon Henderson is pastor.

PORT ELGIN, ONT.—Robert McDowall has been commissioned by Saugeen Township Council to prepare plans for new Sturton bridge.

HALIFAX, N. S.—Frederic Nicholls, of Toronto, was recently in the city in connection with a site for the Canadian Bank of Commerce building.

NELSON, B. C.—The Canadian Pacific Railway Company have had plans prepared for repair shops to be built here, main building 100x75 feet.

NORTH BAY, ONT.—It is reported that the Presbyterian congregation will build a larger church than originally intended and that new tenders will be invited.

SACKVILLE, N. B.—Tenders will be received by B. C. Borden, principal, up to 11th inst., for erection of brick and stone addition to Mount Allison Ladies' College.

PEMBROKE, ONT.—The County Council have empowered a committee to procure plans for a steel or iron bridge to be built over the Indian river on the Eganville road.

GLACE BAY, N. S.—Senator McDonald will erect several business blocks on Union street and during the summer one Catholic and one Presbyterian church will be built.

CHATHAM, ONT.—Raleigh Township Council have instructed W. G. McGeorge to prepare plans for an iron bridge over Government Drain No. 1, on the 6th concession road.

AMHERST, N. S.—Edward Louthier intends erecting a three-storey building.—The Amherst Boot & Shoe Company have purchased additional property, probably for building purposes.

SAULT STE MARIE, ONT.—By-laws were carried by the ratepayers to raise $35,000 for street improvements, $16,000 for town hall and fire hall and $30,000 for new High School.

ST. THOMAS DE MONTMAGNY, QUE.—The municipality has decided to install a waterworks and drainage system, plans for which will be prepared by Jos. Mihnault, municipal engineer.

DUNDAS, ONT.—Tenders are invited by the Dominion Government up to Saturday, 11th inst., for veneering and flooring the drill hall. Plans at office of W. A. Edwards, architect, Hamilton.

ENNISKILLEN, ONT.—George Pearce will receive tenders up to 11th inst. for construction of the Corey drain.—J. W. McDougall wants tenders by 10th inst. for repair of the McLister drain.

FREDERICTON, N. B.—Tenders are wanted at the Department of Public Works by April 20th for rebuilding Shepody River bridge, masonry substructure with covered Howe truss superstructure.

BEAUHARNOIS, QUE.—The town council have decided to grant a bonus of $10,000 to Kilgour Bros. to assist in reconstruction of factory.—The Star Iron Works purpose building a new foundry here.

MATTAWA, ONT.—By-laws will be submitted to the ratepayers on 13th inst. to assist J. M. Deacon to erect a factory, B. J. Gilligan to erect a saw-mill and T. J. Harwood to build a shingle mill.

GODERICH, ONT.—J. A. Fowler, architect, has prepared plans for school house on Nelson street, and additions and repairs to Central school on North street. Tenders will be received up to 18th inst.

PERTH, ONT.—Ground has been broken for addition to T. A. Code's mill, to be three storeys, of Bathurst freestone.—John Howie will erect one or more dwelling houses on corner of Craig and Beckwith streets.

DUNNVILLE, ONT.—Tenders are invited up to noon of 9th inst. for erection of building for the Canadian Bank of Commerce. Plans at the bank here and at office of J. S. Hamilton & Company, Brantford.

ORILLIA, ONT.—T. H. Sheppard and R. J. Sanderson are interested in the company which has been formed and has acquired a site for the manufacture of patent door knobs. It is proposed to build a foundry 65x48 feet and a machine shop 56x32 feet.

VANCOUVER, B. C.—Brown & Howey purpose building a feed and produce warehouse.—The Capital Brewing Company, of Olympia, Washington, have secured an option on a site on which it is proposed to build a large bottling works.—H. G. Moore contemplates erecting a brick and stone block, three storeys, on Cordova street.

BATHURST, N. B.—Rosenberg & Holdengraber are preparing to build a large store.—Joseph Roy intends building a residence.—It is understood that Dr. McNichol has decided to build a fine residence.—James Howell intends building this spring, and it is said that O. F. Stacy and John Payne have building operations in view.

KINGSTON, ONT.—The Board of Works have presented to the Council a report recommending the paving of eight blocks in the business section of the city, at estimated cost of $28,000.—The New York Central Railway Company is said to be negotiating for a site on corner of King and Brock streets on which to build a modern hotel.

TORONTO JUNCTION, ONT.—R. Train has purchased property corner Royce avenue and Dundas street on which he intends building.—It is reported that the tenders received for erection of new post office are in excess of the appropriation.—James Hall intends erecting twenty houses on Keele street.—Mr. Tyndall has plans out for a residence on Cooper avenue.—Arthur W. Willis will build on Edmund street.

BEAUMARIS, ONT.—Extensions and improvements costing from $12,000 to $15,000 are to be made to Prowse's Hotel. The plans have been prepared and tenders are being invited by Chas. J. Gibson, architect, Toronto. Mr. Gibson has commissions to build several costly summer residences near this place for American summer residents.

FORT WILLIAM, ONT.—On March 30th a number of business men decided to form a company, with a capital of $100,000, to build a large number of residences.—Mr. King, of Port Arthur, is taking figures on the building of a large block on corner of Victoria and May streets, concrete and fire-proof construction.—M. B. Aylesworth, architect, of Toronto, has completed plans for the new town hall.

LONDON, ONT.—The congregation of the Askin street Methodist church are considering the building of a Sunday school, at cost of $10,000.—The trustees of the First Presbyterian church have invited tenders for erection of Sunday school building.—The Fire and Light Committee will petition the City Council to build a new fire hall for the north end.—F. W. Farncomb desires tenders by 13th inst. for construction of two cement abutments over creek on third concession, Lobo Township.

HAMILTON, ONT.—It is improbable that the work of rebuilding Knox church will be commenced this year.—Building permits have been granted as follows: L. C. McDonald, brick dwelling, corner Bold and King streets, cost $2,600 (Stuart McPhee, architect); A. C. Havill, two stores, corner Barton street and Fullerton avenue, cost $3,500; H. W. Zealand, two brick dwellings, corner Herkimer and Markland streets, cost $5,000; C. W. Bradfield, dwelling, corner George and Caroline streets, cost $1,600.—The County Council has decided to purchase two road graders.

OTTAWA, ONT.—Bulk tenders will likely be invited this week for erection of public library building.—The Canada Atlantic Railway Company are asking for power to build from Depot Harbor to Sault Ste Marie.—Tenders are invited by the Department of Railways and Canals up to April 30th for the supply of 155,000 feet of British Columbia fir dimension timber.—An announcement respecting the proposed extension of the Langevin block of the Parliament Buildings is expected this week.—The Public School Board have decided to purchase a site on Rideau street for the new Robinson Primary building.

PORT ARTHUR, ONT.—Plans have been prepared for new store for G. L. Matthews & Co., corner of Cumberland and Park streets, brick on stone foundation.—Louis Walsh will erect a brick business block, for which plans are now being prepared.—It is reported that plans have been prepared for 100 dwellings to be built in this town.—Willis Chipman, C.E., of Toronto, has completed his report on waterworks system for this town.—I. L. Mathews intends building a three-storey brick block 40 x 117 feet, plans for which are being prepared by M. B. Aylesworth, architect, of Toronto.

WINNIPEG, MAN.—F. R. Evans, architect, has invited tenders for erection of brick and stone warehouse for Foley, Lock & Larson.—Work will be commenced about May 1st on the new Union Bank block to be built on corner of Main street and William avenue.—J. H. G. Russell, architect, has taken tenders on two additional storeys on McClary Manufacturing Company's warehouse.—W. B. Lait, architect, desires tenders by 11th inst. for erection of brick and stone Lutheran church, corner Nena and Bannatyne streets.—Strang & Co. intend building a warehouse on Fort street,