Live-stock Trade with Argentina.

Some information regarding the possibility of developing a trade in live stock with Argentina is given by Mr. W. S. Spark, the well-known English horseman, in a letter to Mr. F. W. Hodson, Live-stock Commissioner. Soon after his arrival in that country, Mr. Spark "I find all cattle wanded here wrote: must, besides the certificate of breeding, have a certificate (or rather the shipper must produce it) from the Minister of Agriculture, or his deputy, of the country from which they are sent, to declare that there has been no infectious disease in that country for six months previous to shipping. If the said document is not produced, the cattle are not allowed to land. In any case, all cattle must be kept in quarantine for 40 days, after which they are tuberculin tested, and if they do not pass, are slaughtered, and the owner has to bear the entire loss. Notwithstanding all this trouble, it will pay breeders to send really good purebred Shorthorn bulls and heifers here to sell. You can't sell grade cattle at any price."

In a later letter, Mr. Spark says: "The more I see of this country, the more convinced I am that the Canadians can do a very large trade here in live stock and agricultural machinery, on neither of which there is any duty here. I enclose you an account of a sale of imported bulls, which took place last week which shows that the twelve animals offered brought $79,900, or an average of nearly $6,660 each. These prices are in Argentine dollars, equal to 44 cents Canadian money. I have attended eight similar sales, and the average prices paid have been 1,400 Canadian dollars each. The bulls sold, I am told by good judges, who have been to Toronto Show, would not be good enough to win there. The only time to sell here is in September (the best month), October and November, so they would have to be shipped in June and July from Canada. You really should attend next year's exhibition at Buenos Aires in September, which will be international. I hope Canada will make an exhibit, for if she did, all the stock could be sold at the exhibition at very remunerative prices."

"He had one once," replied her hostess, "but the doctor said it was brought on by bein' out too long in the hot sun. My, I don't know what I'd do with a person around me that had them regu-

The other day a well-known counsel, examining the plaintiff in a breach of promise case, inquired of her: "Was the defendant's air when he promised to marry you perfectly serious or one of levity and jocularity?"

The complainant replied: "If you please, sir, it was all ruffled with him running his hands through it.".

"You misapprehend my meaning," said the counsel. "Was the promise made in utter sincerity?"

"No, sir, it was made in the wash-house." replied the plantiff, amid roars of laughter.

Judge Julius M. Mayer tells a story about a white man who was arraigned before a colored justice of the peace during reconstruction times for killing a man and stealing his mule. It was in Arkansas, near the Texas border, and there was some rivalry between the States, but the colored justice tried always to preserve an impartial frame of mind.

"We'se got two kinds ob law in dis yere co't," he said, "Texas law an" Arkansas law. Which will you hab?" The prisoner thought a minute, and then guessed that he would take the Arkansas law.

"Den I discharge you fo' stealing de mule an' hang you fo' killin' de man." "Hold on a minute, Judge," said the prisoner. "Better make that Texas

" All right, under de law ob Texas I fine you fo' killin' the man an' hang you fo' smalin' de mule."

There is not so much in the selection of an occupation as there is in the way you push it.

When you think your business is not up to what it should be, push it. Do not stay at home and growl; get out and put your shoulder to the wheel.

Good habits are easy to form, too. If you try brushing your teeth after each meal you will soon feel uncomfortable when you omit it. This will save dentists' bills and discomfort.

The Glasgow Herald, referring to remarks made at the annual conference of Scottish Chamber of Agriculture about cattle diseases, says: "We have disease amongst us, and yet are solicitous to protect ourselves against a country where disease does not exist." It suggests that Brittish stock might benefit from the admixture of foreign blood.

The servant problem is yet to be solved, is the way Chairman Taggart looks at it.

"It was like this," said the Chairman to some friends the other day. "The old servant we had for ten years came to me last week and said she would have to leave the same day, as she was about to be married.

"What do you mean?" I asked. "You won't leave us so suddenly! Ask him to wait a few days.'

"Sure, sir, I'd like to oblige you, but I don't feel well enough acquainted to ask him such a thing," was her answer.
