"If we work upon marble it will perish, if we work upon brass time will efface it, if we rear temples they will crumble into dust; but if we work upon immortal minds, if we imbae them with principle, with the love and just fear of Ged, and the love of our fellowmen we engrave upon these tablets something which will brighten to all eternity." The highest ed-ucational abilities, attainments and profee-sional skill are not too high for the man or woman who is to be entrusted with the mould ing of the plastic mental and moral natures of children. 4.80 4 80 The increase in population over the preceed year was 2 395, of which 1,706 was in Quebe and 689 in Ontario.

BREGULATIONS FOR LENT TO BE READ BY THE REVEREND CLENERY FOR THEIR RESPECT-TVE FLOCKS AT ALL THE MASSES ON QUINQUACESIMA SUNDAY. 1. All days in Lent, Sunday excepted, are fasting days—one meal and a collation 2. All persons who are twenty-one and under sixiy years, are bound by the law of fasting and abdithence. 3. By virtue of powers granted us by Apra-tolic Induit, we permit the use of meat on all Sundays at discretion, also at the one meal on all Mondays. Therdays and Salur-day, except the Saturday of Ember week and Holy Saturday. Nowhere under the broad canopy of Reavea s there a more delicate, grander or sublimer work than that done in the schoolroom, namely near mounding of the human mind. or of enjoyment in the hope of that success, which soouer or later is sure to be attained? But what is the artist, working on mute canvas or dead marble compared with that artist who works on living personality, respras-ive intellect and graizful aff-citons? Can baauty of expression be developed on the can was or beauty of form be drawn from the marble? How much more beautiful that energy of character, and beauty of soul devel-oped by the devoted teacher through her artistic skill on her plastic, responsive material? How glorious and sublime is the teacher's call ing and how much there is in it above and beyond mere routine? Every day of a teacher's life is as a pebbla-cast into a pool whose circling eddies widen and widen until they meet and break on the distant shores of eternity. HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS SAY FARE-WELL.

THE PUPILS OF THE HIGH SCHOOL PRESENT MISS O BRIEN WITH A REMEMBRANCE OF HER UNTIRING EFFORTS.

THE PUPILS OF THE HORT SCHOOL PRESS, MISS O BRIEN WITH A REMEMBRANCE OF INSE UNTHING EFFORTS. On Friday night the pupils of the High school assombled at Alexander Hall to say farewell to Miss O Brien, and to present her with a handsome gift as a momento of their school for her, and to express their apprecia-tion of her and to express their apprecia-tion of her, and to express their apprecia-tion of her, and to express their apprecia-tion of her, and to express their apprecia-tion of her and to express their apprecia-tion of the quotation. The chairman called on a number of the gentlemen present for short speeches, and all were high in their praise of Miss O Brien's ability as a teacher, expressing the desire that tere mid-summer arrives ber health will again permit her taking her position on the teaching staff.

We are absolutely safe in stating that Miss O'Brien will carry with her from Alexandria the best wishes of all classes and conditions. All are loud in her braise, and sincerely hope that Kind Providence will again restore her wonted physical strength, thus allowing her for der at her usual blue in our High School. —The Glengarian, Feb. 18.

PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS.

The meeting also discussed the "duties of janitors and truant officers." A spirited dis-cussion followed on the course wissest to be pureted in connection with certain cases of discipline cited by the teachers pres-ent and which they had met with in their ex-

Month's Mind. A Month's Mind de requiem was celebrated in St. Joseph's church, Douro, on Thursday, February 5 b, for the repose of the soul of the Jate John Costigan, of Calgary. May he rest in peace. Amen. The Mass was celebrated by Father Keilty. a life long friend of the de-ceased's father, Hon. John Costigan.—Peter-borough Examiner, Feb. 12

How short inought's short with a kinetic our heart, magnify our profession and glorify our labor. Yes, in spite of the trials, deprivations and discouragements which environ the lot of a teacher-and these ac incidental to all avoca-tions—teaching is unquestionably and uncom-parably the greatest work on exitb. In all our work let us keep before our eyes our Divine Teacher. No other shall we imitate. Any less is not worthy our hours of labor, instruc-tion and training; and then how graciously and amply our Divine Model shall mercifully re-ward the time we spent among and with the children. He, their Heavenly Father, must be worid but a preparatory class wherein souls which shall merif for them an eternity of de-light—eventageting union with the God of all love.

Toronto Globe. Sir Charles Duffy's own political philosophy on the Irish question issummed up at the close of his history in a faw sentences, that are as well worth attention as when he pound them. "This crucial question—whether these islands cannot at last learn to live together, each under its own parliament—must still be encountered; for though men fail, and means and agencies are modified, a true cause is in:mortal. Just Caglishmen understood Irish insurrection, but, unfortunately, they understand it when it is too late. Lord Holland, a cabinet minister under William IV, declared that the Govern-ment of Ireland in the eighteenth century justified Lord Edward Fitzgarald in appealing rodarms. Must we wait for a Cabinet Minister under Edward VII.. to admit that the Govern-ment of Ireland in 1818 justified Smith O'Brien and his associates !'

Skillful Management Tells.

Skillful Management Tells. The twenty second annual floanoial state-ment of the North American Life Assurance Company, which appears in this issue, will well repay the perueal of all interested. It exhibits a condition of affairs affording abund-ant cause for gratification to policyholders, agants and management. The policies issued in 1902 amounted to $6 600.25, being over a million dollars in ex-cess of the largest business of any proceeding year. The cosh income for the year was $127,840, which was $173,737 in excess of that of 1901. The payments to policyholders amounted to $374.513 of which nearly half was paid to living members. The asset have in-creased by $390,639, and now amount to $5010.813. The net surplus, after payment of large dividends on maturing policies during the year, still scands at considerably over half a million dollars, and that notwithstanding that "stocks and debentures" have been taken at book value, which is about $70,000 less than their market value.
