RTO FAMILT BIBLE, with

LER'S

aparilla YING THE BLOOD. ure of the following complaints:

OAKLANE, Indi, 6th June, 1869 Genter: I Feel It my daty to ne-(sourse: I had I in good to according to the service of the servic e has gone from my system. You feel what I am saying when I tell o be one of the apostles of the age, fully.

Yours,

ALFRED B. TALLEY.

Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Sait Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Dropsy, the wist from Saim, N. F. 12th has cared an invertee case of staned to terminate stally, by the ir Sarsaparilla, and so a dangerous is by large docet c. he same; eave in Eraptions by it constantly.

Goffre or Swelled Neck.

Whites, Ovarian Tumor, ation, Fomale Diseases. actions, Feasiale Diseases, ing. of New York City, writes; I ply with the request of your agent in a your Sarsspanilla a most excellent annerous complisates for which we dy, but especially in Panale Disease affects. I have cured many investments by it, and some where the convidence of the decay. The ulcescened. Nothing within my knowless female derangements, w. of. Newinry, Jan. writes, A danson on one of the females in my family, it the remedies we could employ, has pletely cured by your Extract of Sarsician thought nothing but extragale, but he advised the trial of your last resort before cutting, and it feer taking your remedy eight weeks issues remains.

and report to you some of the effects your Sarsquaillia.
It, in my practice, most of the consistency of the

G. V. LARIMER, M. D. Gant, Liver Complaint. La wonderful meucine.

of St. Louis, writes: "I have been with an affection of the Liver, which is I tried every thing, and every thing and I have been a broken-down man no other cause than devangement of depaster, the liev. Mr. Espy, advised parilla, because he said he knew you, er Tumors, Enlargement art Disease, Fits, Epilepancholy, Neuralgia menory, Neurangia.

ceurs of these affections have been ive power of this medicine. It atimutions into vigorous action, and thus which would be supposed beyond its edy has long been required by the nole, and we are condent that this will medicine can de.

Cherry Pectoral THE RAPID CURE OF

so universally known to surpose sny J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass. lessie by 008WELL, Holds Street, Halifax

CIAL WESLEYAN. Conference Office and Book Boom, E STREET, HALIFAX, N. S. hich this Paper is published are by low:—Ten Shillings yearly ERTISEMENTS:

eral circulation, is an eligible and for advertising. Persons will find me 12—(additional) mee one-fourth of the above rates, is not limited will be continued until ut and charged accordingly.

JOB WORK, B WORK executed with restricts and make terms.

Provincial Atestepan.

Published under the direction of the Wesleyan Methodist Conference of Eastern British America.

VOLUME XIII. No. 7.

HALIFAX, N. S., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1861.

WHOLE No. 605.

Religions Miscellany.

For the Provincial Wesleyan.

Death of Saladin. This Saracen monarch, a short time before

Within a city of the East, Whose thousand domes and spires, When gilded by the setting sun, Shine like resplendent fires, A silence reigns, -so still and deep, It seems as if some woe Hath swept the land with tyrant power, And laid the nation low.

Where are the ever shifting scenes Of daily, busy life? Where are the harsh, discordant sounds Of tumult and of strife? Where is the ever active crowd That throngs the busy mart? What mighty-more than mortal-spell Hath bound the nation's heart?

One voice-in earnest, solemn sound-Breaks on the startled air, And the enquiring vision reads A fearful lesson there And as the messenger moves on The people hold their breath, For in his lifted hand he bears The ambrotype of death!

A winding sheet,-oh, stern rebuke To earthly pride and trust! A winding sheet on sceptre born-Emblems of power and dust. And still one thrilling, earnest cry The people's ear enchains; "Of Saladin, your mighty king, This, this alone remains!"

Oh, fearful thought! and is this all Of human pomp and pride? Is there no lasting joy and fame To earthly deeds allied? Must all the champions of the sword. Victorious and brave With arms reversed, and muffled tread, March to the conquering grave?

The monarch's crown, the monarch's fame-Ah. what avails him now ! For blasted is the laurel wreath, Upon the stricken brow: Perchance 'tis this consuming thought The conqueror constrains To bid his messenger proclaim That death alone remains.

Oh, what a message of rebuke To every thoughtful mind-To think that fame will only leave A winding sheet behind! Then let us build our name on high Above the world's renown; Where no intruding storm of earth Shall sweep the fabric down.

For, if we vanquish every foe In the great war of life, Still, pierced by death, we'll fall at last Upon the field of strife. And though no messenger of death Our winding sheet may bear. And publish to the list'ning world.

A solemn message there; The silent grave, with grass o'ergrown Shall tell in mournful strains-Of one who fought life's battle well, This, this alone remains."

Mill Town, Jan. 28th, 1861. 1 000

[From "Our Excellent Women."] Mrs. Hester Ann Rogers. BY REV. J. B. WAKELEY.

On the nineteenth of August, 1784, she was united in marriage to a Methodist minister namman was ever united to. Her feelings, sympa-when the hand that wrote it was cold. thy, and faithful love were, I believe, seldom

"Happy the man, and sure he was, So wedded! Blessed with her, he wandered not Cork and London. She used to meet several closely and tenderly are our hearts still knit to- A smiling landscape, meadows, woods and classes, instruct penitents, and lead believers on gether? Nor shall the sweet union be dissolved to full salvation. Hundreds she won to Christ. by death; but being one in Christ we shall be And, in the mellow distance, ocean's blue. She also visited the sick and poor, and was thus one forever. Mourn not that I go first. He saw How the heart smiles in answer to the scene!

But what gave the greatest lustre to ner character was her pure devotional spirit. Often she he will give you a crown of life which I am now Or half-appreciate, and churlish use read the Bible on her knees; and frequently was hastening to receive.

so overwhelmed with the love of God, as to "The chariots of Israel and the horsemen lose the use of her physical powers. In disposi- thereof,' are all in waiting to carry me home. tion, she was ever cheerful, serving the Lord with gladness. In conversation, ever serious, never having been known to utter a trifling

We have spoken of Mr. and Mrs Rogers as the

Mr. Wesley, for five months, and then be a wit- made a glorious body incorruptible, ness of his glorious exit, was a favor indeed. The solemnity of the dying hour of that great, good man, I believe, will ever be written on my heart! A cloud of the Diving presence rested And able then to enjoy the full fruition of my and his eyes fixed, victory and glory were now dying lips! Oh, could he then have spoken, methinks it would have been nothing but vic- Angels surround my bed, to carry me away.

heaven unspeakable." is, God is with us," he saw a group of persons merable company! And I shall joinsurrounding his dying couch, and he inquired, Who are these?" "Sir," replied James Rogers, who, with his wife, Hester Ann Rogers, ministered to him in his last hours; "Sir, we are How delightful the theme! It hath set my soul

Just as he was breathing his last, Mr. Rogers gave out these words :--

"Waiting to receive thy spirit, Lo! the Saviour stands above, Shows the purchase of his merit Reaches out the crown of love." When he had ceased to breathe, some one said, Then Mr. Rogers prayed in the spirit for the her generosity, her perfect resignation. descent of the Holy Ghost on all who were prewhich the Church militant sustains by the re- none purer, none more angelic. moval of our much-loved father to his great reward. How appropriate the prayer! What a scene! such as earth has seldom witnessed. How worthy of a painter's pencil! Mr. and Mrs. Rogers were prominent actors in of Wesley. beautiful and does the engraver great honor. ther, for so it seemeth good in thy sight." This scription :persons who surrounded the death-bed of Weslev, we cannot but speak of it in terms of unqualified approbation. The sweet face will inspire many with a spirit of devotion.

"Sister spirit, come away." intimate friend, Rev. Thomas Coke, LL.D., from the reputation of a popular preacher. " It is appointed unto all men once to die." In it he gives her the most exalted Christian character. and concludes with. "Go and do thou likewise." Her husband survived her a few years, and then fell asleep. Those who have seen the picture, the death-bed of Mr. Wesley, will remember a don't pay. From what I know of it, I would as little boy who was present. That was James soon chase butterflies for a living, or bottle up ed James Rogers. A volume might be written Roe Rogers, who, for a long time, was the only moonshine for cloudy nights. The only true concerning this excellent minister of Jesus. He living witness of his death. The rest had been gawas a noble man, an able preacher, the confidenthered to their fathers. He, too, is gone. He died God gives them to us every day of our lives; weakness needs to strengthen me." Mr. Rogers what she, no doubt, intended as her final fare-It is entitled. "The Dving Bed of a Saint and than into the world without education.

equalled, and never exceeded." James Rogers Sinner Contrasted." After having described the Unsanctified wisdom is the devil's greatest membrance in prayer were numerous, and some triumphant death of the "child of God," "the tool.

"Farewell, my dear, beloved children. I Mrs. Rogers was not only one of the best of leave you, but your parents' God has promised wives, but an excellent wife for a Methodist min- to take care of you." "Farewell, in particular. ster. In Dublin, Mr Rogers' first station after my ever dear husband. How was our friendship Stand on this pleasant hill, whose sunny brow, their marriage, she was useful, and afterwards in ripened almost to the maturity of heaven? How With white and ruddy clover speck'd, o'erlook it best for my weakness; my feeble frame might not have supported your absence! A very little Green fields, spread ample to the noon-day Watchman. while, and you will follow me; and, oh! with As a mother, she excelled. Mrs. Rogers was what joy shall I welcome your arrival on the Meandering river, loth to leave the land, blessed with five children, and there were two eternal shore, and conduct you to him whom our Yet lapsing ever to the murmuring sea; that Mr. Rogers had by a former wife; she exhibited no partiality, but felt the same interest in nion in heaven's road, whom God in the greatest them all, training them for God, and educating mercy gave to me. I leave thee, with the most them for immortality. She was no cold-hearted grateful sensations for all the kind tokens of step-mother, who dandled on the cold hand of affection which I have ever had from thee. For tep-mother, who dandled on the cold hand of affection which i have the half thy care, thy love, thy prayers, I bless my all thy care, thy love, thy prayers, I bless my The sparkling sea, a stagnant weed-spread pool; She was a great reader all her days. Her God and thank thee. But I must go to Jesus, The rose might lack its fragrance and its blush; favorite book, next to the Bible, was Rollin's who is infinitely dearer to me. With him I leave Ancient History. She possessed a fine mind thee, nor doubt his care. It is but a short sepa-Ancient History. She possessed a fine fining siec, nor doubt his case.

and was an excellent scholar, as her letters and ration; our spirits will then re-unite, and then And smiling called the fair creation good. writings show. She kept a diary from fifteen never, never know separation more." "Fareyears of age till a few days before her death.

But what gave the greatest lustre to her chabut love God. Be thou faithful unto death, and Grope in a world-constructed twilight cave;

> See the guardian angels nigh, Wait to waft my soul on high! See the golden gates displayed See the crown to grace my head! See a flood of sacred light, Which shall yield no more to night; intimate friends of John Wesley. He was anx- He cries, 'Arise, my love, my fair one, and come ious they should be near him in his last days. away.' Amen, saith my willing, joyful soul. Therefore, in 1790, Mr. Wesley removed Mr. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. My soul is on the Rogers from Ireland, and stationed him in London, and he lived in the parsonage at City Road, hold me from my love! How welcome the stroke and Mr. Wesley with them. This Mrs. Rogers that shall break down these separating walls, continuance. Mrs. Rogers says, "to be with body, this tottering house of clay, which now

'Shall the stars and sun outshine Shout among the sons of glory, All immortal, all divine.' on all! And while he could hardly be said to God. Yes, I shall soon see him as he is; not on an: And while he could hardly be said to through a glass, darkly, but face to face. The and his case fived victory and glory were now beatific sight

' Shall fill the heavenly courts with praise, And wide diffuse the golden blaze Of everlasting light.'

tory! victory! grace! grace! glory! glory! No come, I come, blessed messengers of my God! language can paint what appeared in that face! Haste and convey me to his loved embrace! My The more we gazed upon it, the more we saw of faith already beholds the crucified Redeemer methinks I see him smile, while around him From another source we learn, that as soon as stand the heavenly host exulting! Oh! glorious Mr. Wesley had exclaimed, "The best of all train of blood-bought souls! What an innu

'Shall shout by turns the bursting joy; And all eternity employ, In songs around the throne.'

ceive your crown." Mr. Wesley exclaimed: "It of my ideas, or the prospect that lies before me. for India and others. is the Lord's doing, and marvellous in our But I shall prove the unutterable bliss! The claim the depth of Jesus' love! Amen and amen. " HESTER ANN ROGERS."

"Let us pray for the mantle of our Elijah." purity, her patience, her prudence, her charity, ed Thankoffering Fund in aid of that Mise founder of Methodism expired. It is exquisitely Lamb's wife, taken by him into eternal wedlock." diction was pronounced.

"Beside the marble bust, Which marks where venerable goodness waits The archangel's call, tradition loves to sit And chronicle her deeds."

SHALL SEE GOD,"-Methodist,

Striving for Popularity.

1794. She leaned her head on the bosom of her One is simple and solemn; the other is magnifi-

Happiness. Now, let me tell you a secret-a secret worth tal friend of Wesley, worthy the heart and hand of Hester Ann Roe. Two purer spirits have seldom been united since our first parents were nection. The last witness is gone who beheld the seldom been united since our first parents were nection. The last witness is gone who beheld the seldom been united since our first parents were nection. The last witness is gone who beheld the seldom been united since our first parents were nection. The last witness is gone who beheld the seldom been united since our first parents were nection. The last witness is gone who beheld the seldom been united since our first parents were nection. The last witness is gone who beheld the seldom been united since our first parents were nection. made one in Paradise. She speaks thus concerning Mr. Rogers, "in whom the Lord gave me Mrs. Rogers seems to have had a presentiment Mrs. Rogers seems to have had a presentiment he will be sure to miss his enjoyment when he gains what he sighs for.

For the Provincial Weslevan. The Beautifier.

streams.

Azure, and grey-piled cloud, and fleecy drift. Why all this beauty? Chequer'd earth might be The sky, its gorgeous sunsets, golden stars! God will'd the beauty as he will'd the light, Who sees, or thanks, aright? Vain, purblind

The gifts, forgetful of the Donor's hand. The wise have double joy: they look around Seeing the Wondrous Maker in His works,-And look beyond, at blissful fields, indeed Transcendant, which surround His brighte considered as near Paradise as she ever expect- knock off my fetters, throw open my prison ing and evening, the attendance has been very of opposite parties," and he quotes from a letter could not apprehend his contemplated mode of ed to be on earth. But it proved to be a short doors, and set me at liberty. This corruptible large. On Wednesday evening, the chair was from Spain which has appeared in the Cictital attack. He, however, came close to me, but they oppose it.

Throne.

Religious Intelligence.

The Week of Special Prayer.

Nay, so I am filled with glory and with God, that troductory remarks, mentioned several instances more I could not bear and live! Oh, may I ever of remarkable answers to prayer. He also adfeel the sacred flame, and through eternity proter of Sir Herbert Edwardes on the subject, vant." which has appeared in our columns, and urging Had we space, we might dwell long on her the desirableness of contributions to the propos-He stated that the Missionary who originated There may have been women of greater beauthe idea of a concert for prayer expected to be sent, and on all who mourn the general loss ty, of greater intellect, of greater education, but in England during the May Anniversaries. The was related to me by the gentleman himself, centre of a very large store, and gas the whole Chairman then and subsequently read several who was originally as Irishman, but who has length, which could not have been less than 100 resurrection of the dead, or the conception of O thou blessed woman! would that the Church ed a very able address on the free circulation of ly useful and interesting Christian periodical, the abounded with members possessing thy spirit, the Bible. Among those who offered prayer insertion thereof at your convenience will, I before, though he was totally unknown to me at it, and will ever be associated with the death-bed and following thy example. Then would she be during the evening were Mr. Robert Baxter and trust, tend to illustrate the abounding grace of the time. Bending myself backwards behind should have no occasion to divert ourselves from so pure that "ages would write no wrinkles on the Rev. Dr. Osborn, Secretary of the Wesleyan Christ, and also oblige your constant reader and those persons between us, I tapped him on the her queenly brow, or sin defile her pure, unis taken from the position she occupied when the spotted robes, but worthy to be the bride, the lemn interval for silent prayer before the beneor Gentiles, upon the converts of his station, and Sabbath. We must hasten to a close. Mrs. Rogers survived her friend Mr. Wesley only three years.

After a life of uncommon devotion and useful
The lack of piety shows itself, in our day, in straining after popularity. One is truly popular by the force of his talents and the fervor of his talents and the evening meeting, was set out," said the Rev. gentleman, "with one salve the thought he could not serve Christ so the thought he could not serve Christ so the thought he could not serve Christ so the fervor of his development. The found salvation—man the being the found salvation—man the fervor of his talents are found salvation—man the being the found salvation—man the fervor of speaks of her as "one of the best helpmates well to survivors, and to be opened and read You had better send a son unarmed and help-offered by the Rev. Dr. Hewlett, the Rev. Edbearing on the immediate subject of the day, What tints and forms of bosky forest shade; brought before the throne of grace.-London

Persecution in Spain.

It will be remembered that Lord John Russell deputation on this subject, and that his lordship not only that a feeling in favour of religious lib-erty is not wanting in Spain, but that it exists was no alternative, I must stand in the door, and country. there very extensively. Sir Culling Eardley has address the people both inside and out. Placing grounds of this belief, and gives extracts from correspondence with persons acquainted with Spain, as the Rev. A. C. Dallas, Rector of Won-that honored and much-loved servant of God, cannot sustain his weight of love, shall soon be Tucker, of Camden-town, delivered the Address, de Bourbon, signed by Spanish residents in Lonin the course of which he made very touching don. Sir Culling Eardley concludes :- "Whe- my apprehensions. But judge my dismay, when allusions to the power of prayer by believing par- ther you will consider the foregoing testimonies I saw him deliberately stoop for the purpose of ents for the conversion of their children. Prayer to the feeling of Spaniards on religious liberty tripping up my heels, and thus turn the laugh was offered by the Rev. W. M. Bunting, Rev. S. sufficient to justify you in making a friendly re- against me as a fallen enemy. My resolution was Minton, late Minister of Percy Episcopal Chap- monstrance with the Spanish Government in the at once fixed; I felt that should be succeed all el, and others. It is worthy of consideration, case of Matamoros and Alhama, I do not know. my efforts to glorify God would be rendered whether the requests for prayer on behalf of in- A similar remonstrance addressed by your lord- completely abortive, and, having my Bible in my dividual cases, might not be remitted to the or- ship to the Grand Duke of Tuscany liberated the left hand, just as he stooped I fastened the findinary Prayer-meetings, and every available mo- Madiai; and well would it have been for that gers of my right in his woolly hair, and his bent ment, on these special occasions, be reserved for amiable but misguided prince if he had continued position gave me complete mastery over him. On Thursday morning, Mr. R. C. L. Bevan priesthood, which, after rendering a popular dy-never attempted to interfere. When he assayed esided, and read a portion of Scripture. The nasty unpopular at home, have ended by mak- to stoop I held him up, and when he made efforts Rev. Dr. Osborn, Secretary of the Wesleyan ing the sovereign an unpitied fugitive abroad. to rise I pressed him down. In this very ano-Missionary Society, delivered the address on It may be that such a communication from your malous position I continued preaching on for Prayer for "The free circulation of the Word of lordship to the Government of the Queen of what seemed to me an extremely lengthened pe-God, and a blessing upon Christian Literature," Spain, conceived in a spirit of hearty and riod, till at length he turned up his large white of faith, Darius, Cyrus, Alexander, the Romans, and afterwards led the devotions of the meeting. unmistakeable good-will, might be the means eyes with an expression I shall never forget, and Pompey, and Herod, all conspiring, without The Rev. S. B. Bergne, Sec'ty of the British and in the hands of God of evoking a permanent- in a rather subdued tone said- 'You white man knowing it, to promote the glory of the Gospel! For. Bible Society, made a few remarks on the cir- ly better feeling than hitherto, and of avert- preacher, will you not let me go now.' 'Yes, if 6. He is the true God to us men; that is, to culation of the Bible in Russia, and then prayed, ing evils which, in the history of mankind, you will walk off,' was my curt reply. 'Well, I miserable and sinful creatures; He is the centre as did also the Rev. J. H. Tichcomb, Secretary have ever followed in the train of a persever- guess I shall; and he was at once released. of all, and the oject of all. He who knows not come to rejoice with you; you are going to receive your crown." Mr. Wesley exclaimed: "It of my ideas, or the prospect that lies before me. for India and others.

Crest-fallen and subdued, he disappeared, and I him knows nothing either in the order of the matter, however, with your lordship, on saw him then no more; but by the blessing of world, or in himself. For not only do we know In the evening, the Hon. A. Kinnaird, M. P., whom the Christian people of this country rely God I concluded in peace. I returned again and nothing of God but by Jesus Christ, but we inheritance is mine! A foretaste now I feel! was in the chair, and, in the course of some in-written requests for prayer and thanksgivings for for many years been a most zealous and success- or 120 feet. When we were at dinner, I obanswers to prayer. The Rev. H. J. Lumsden, Incumbent of St. Thomas's, Marylebone, deliving America, be suited to the pages of your high-

The Grace of God Displayed.

But her form and her name will be treasured On Friday morning Captain Trotter presided, anxious to return to his own residence in the The form is fine, the position graceful, the face beautiful, the countenance serene, the eyes closbeautiful, the countenance serene, the eyes closfound free from all common associations, bathed

But her form and her name will be treasured and her name will be treasured and the Rev. W. Landels, of Regent's Park
State of Delaware before the ensuing Sabbath, found free from all common associations, bathed

But her form and her name will be treasured and the Rev. W. Landels, of Regent's Park State of Delaware before the ensuing Sabbath, found free from all common associations, bathed (Baptist) Chapel delivered the address on prayer had left that city on Friday for that purpose. had left that city on Friday for that purpose. him I freely forgave him, and trusted he would the strong man's house; but first bind the strong man's house; beautiful, the countenance series, the eyes closed, the hands uplifted in devotional attitude, and a resignation that seems to say, "Even so, Faall Bishops, Pastors and Elders of the Churches, and bin I freely forgave him, and trusted he would in a light of tempered but celestial radiance, and seek mercy at the hand of one greater than I seek mercy at the hand of one greater upon all seminaries of Christian learning, and during the whole of the night of Friday, in foiled in his wicked nary among Jews order to reach home in sufficient time for the Almighty fell on him—that he was under the Jobbed Thee of; spoil Thou the world of this ness, after two hours' sickness, this charming woness, after two hours' sickness, this charming wopiety; another, because he seeks it as a main Rev. James Davis, Secretary of the Evangelical States, but which it would be almost impossihis own freedom—joined the church, and from that is perpetually flowing into the ocean of the man fell asleep in Jesus, the 10th of Octobor, end. Between these there is a wide difference. Alliance, and others, led in the devotional exhusband, and said: "I am going." She then cent and affected. The one impresses by his The subject for Saturday was prayer for "the voured to render the time profitable by conversmoting the cause of what he called 'His blessed the water from an area of 7,000 square miles of gave him the farewell kiss from lips already palthought; the other, by his manners and words. speedy overfhrow of all false religions, and the ing on the state of our connexion, the glorious and happy Methodist Church.'" The one attracts by the solemnity and power with which he presents and applies divine truth; the order, by his manners and applies divine truth; the order, by his negrons, and the presents and applies divine truth; the order, by his negrons, and the presents and applies divine truth; the order, by his negrons, and the presents and applies divine truth; the order, by his negrons, and the presents and applies divine truth; and happy Methodist Church."

Rev. Mr. R—— concluded by saying, "So miles by its windings drains the water from a draw the efforts which were requisite to sustain far as I know he still lives respectable and rescountry of twice the area; and the Danube from And away her happy spirit fled to the bosom the other, by his newspaper notice, his quaint those present we noticed the Earl of Roden, and promote the advancing and prosperous cause pected, a blessing to himself and to the cause of the cause of the cause pected, a blessing to himself and to the cause of And away ner nappy spirit need to the bosonic the other, by his newspaper notice, his quality of her God. To her, sudden death was sudden subjects and texts, his odd illustrations. The many Clergymen and Ministers and lay members of the Redeemer, and the paramount necessity of implaging the aid of the Holy Spirit, to sanction of God in him illustrated.

The one present we noticed the cause many Clergymen and Ministers and lay members of the Redeemer, and the paramount necessity of implaging the aid of the Holy Spirit, to sanction of God in him illustrated.

The one present we noticed the cause many Clergymen and Ministers and lay members of the Redeemer, and the paramount necessity of implaging the aid of the Holy Spirit, to sanction.

The one present we noticed the cause many Clergymen and to the cause of the Redeemer, and the paramount necessity of implaging the aid of the Holy Spirit, to sanction.

The one present we noticed the cause many Clergymen and Ministers and lay members of the Redeemer, and the paramount necessity of implaging the aid of the Holy Spirit, to sanction.

The one present we noticed the cause many Clergymen and to the cause many Clergymen and the paramount necessity of implaging the aid of the Holy Spirit, to sanction.

The one present we noticed the cause many Clergymen and Ministers and lay members of the Redeemer, and the paramount necessity of implaging the aid of the Holy Spirit, to sanction.

The one present we notice, his quality the document of the Redeemer, and the paramount necessity of implaging the aid of the Holy Spirit, to sanction.

The one present we noticed the cause many clergymen and the paramount necessity of the Redeemer, and the paramount necessity of the R glory. Seldom has the Church on earth lost so one wins converts to Christ; the other, admirers bers of the Committees of our resuming regions of impleging the aid of the riory Spirit, to sales of impleging the aid of the riory Spirit, to sales of impleging the aid of the riory Spirit, to sales of impleging the aid of the riory Spirit, to sales of impleging the aid of the riory Spirit, to sales of impleging the aid of the riory Spirit, to sales of the Church in of himself. The one preaches boldly the doceaven received so pure a spirit. Mrs. Rogers trines of the cross; the other withholds or modiwas thirty-eight years old when she died. An fies them, lest they should offend; and blunts impressive funeral sermon was preached by her every arrow, lest it penetrate, emulous only of Walker presided. Major Straith, Secretary of the approach of cheering dawn once more, and the Church Missionary Society offered the first prayer specially on the subject of Missions. The scape broke on our view. Just as the rays of the distant scape broke on our view. Just as the rays of the distant scape broke on our view. Just as the rays of the distant scape broke on our view. The distant scape broke on our view of the distant scape broke on our view. The distant scape broke on our view of the distant scape broke on our view. The distant scape broke on our view of the distant scape broke on our view. The distant scape broke on our view of the distant scape broke on our view. The distant scape broke on our view of the distant scape broke on our view. The distant scape broke on our view of the distant scape broke on our view. The distant scape broke on our view of the distant scape broke on our view. The distant scape broke on our view of the distant scape broke on our view. The distant scape broke on our view of the distant scape broke on our view. The distant scape broke on our view of the distant scape broke on our view. The distant scape broke on our view of the distant scape broke on our view of the distant scape broke on our view. The distant scape broke on our view of the distant scape broke or our view of the distant scape broke or our view of the distant scape broke or our view of the dist Rev. J. B. Owen, Incumbent of St. Jude's, Chel-Rev. J. B. Owen, Incumbent of St. Jude's, Uneisea, delivered the address, pointing out the end mountains, and glitter on the dew-besprinkled apparent success. A native preacher was passing through a village on Saturday to his preaching through the same village to God's dealings with his Church and people in view of the overthrow of false systems and the villages which frequently in America in a very view of the overthrow of false systems and the villages which frequently in America in a very village establishment of the truth. He adverted to the lew years become towns of importance, for popurecent triumph of our small army over the hundreds of millions of China, as an exemple of the all the elements of a future city before us. when he was told, greatly to his surprise, that he by their father, did not reach their tenth year. effect of unity and discipline, and applied the analogy to the conflict between the Church and the world;—would that there were the same the insignia of human industry scattered in wild spread from village to village, the people cast-over the insignia of human industry scattered in wild spread from village to village, the people cast-over the insignia of Greece, and the insignia of Greece the same the insignia of human industry scattered in wild spread from village to village, the people cast-over the insignia of Greece the same the insignia of human industry scattered in wild spread from village to village, the people cast-over the insignia of human industry scattered in wild spread from village to village, the people cast-over the insignia of human industry scattered in wild spread from village to village, the people cast-over the most celebrated rhetoricians of Greece. army of Christ. He concluded by urging his profoundest silence, not a being was stirring; from the missionaries. The people say that they and forgot all he had previously acquired. Pacha hearers to the exercise of more faith and more and while the graphic description given by Vir- had come to the knowledge of the truth chiefly love to God and man. Prayer was afterwards gil in his Æniad of a city in progress struck our by the instruction their children had received in cundus at the age of twenty-five, at the age of You had better send a son unarmed and neipless into a wilderness of ferocious wild animals, ward Auriel, Rector of St. Dunstan's, Fleet-the city of the dead, or the valley of dry bones, districts, containing at the beginning of the Latin verses, and become profoundly versed in of the individual cases were of a very affecting involuntarily sprung to our lips. We resolved character. One of several intervals of silent to see could anything be done for the spiritual character. One of several intervals of silent to see could anything be done for the spiritual be one left there." supplication, was set apart for the Queen, Prince advancement of this rising community. Tapconsort, and Royal family. In the allusions to to false systems which furnish a special call to prayer, particular mention was made of the in-prayer, particular mention was made of the inroads of rationalism and neology. The critical was nothing of the kind. I then told the person The Church of England has 165 places of worposition of the New Zealand Missionaries, and to inform his neighbours that on such a day and ship, accommodating 29,866 persons; the Rothe cause of the Irish Church Missions to Ro- hour a sermon would be preached in the village man Catholics, 69 chapels, for 19,751 persons; man Catholics, were among the many matters to all who chose to attend, and we resumed our the Presbyterians, 74 chapels; the Wesleyan drew a line of distinction between the countries in the States of America. By the time we reach - Watchman. ripe for religious freedom and countries unripe, ed the village the heterogeneous crowd that preripe for religious freedom and countries unripe, and intimated an apprehension that the people and intimated an apprehension that the people baffled all description. Some sitting, some lying ITALY.—At a late meeting of the Committee of Prince Danilo, Sovereign of Motenegro, who their opposition to the principles of the Refor- or standing, some chatting, others laughing, obfriendly advice, to bring the case of Matamoros the house, and the rest were outside as describernment. The Evangelical Alliance has since preach inside, and I shall do as I can outside.'

ston, Samuel Hanson, Esq., the Rev. Dr. Rule, from his distance I could easily see his manacu Wesleyan Minister in Gibraltar and Cadiz for vres, and that his object was to neutralize any many years, and Dr. Tregelles, of Plymouth. impressions I might make on the audience. Fail-Sir Culling Eardely proceeds to say that "these ing in this, he changed his tactics, and elbowed At the Meetings arranged by the Evangelical Alliance, held at Freemason's Hall, both morn-evidence derived from distinguished Spaniards clearly perceived he meditated mischief, but occupied by Mr. Robert Baxter. The Rev. F. Cattolica, and also from an address to Don Juan while I confess I did feel somewhat nervous at to resist the despotic influences of the Roman Thus I stood, and the crowd, as if spell-bound -as a sincere and unwavering advocate of the try. That embryo village is now an important Christ alone!

come an intelligent congregation, who there 8. Many err the more dangerously, because attended a public dinner within a few miles of another. SIRS.—Should the following narrative, which the same locality. The table was placed in the J. H. Gawn. shoulder and said, 'Friend, you seem to know thinking of it. The Rev. J ____ B ____, who had been attend- me, where have you seen me before?' 'O, sir,' ing the Philadelphia Conference, and who was said he, 'do you not recollect the wicked fellow and was completed by His death, who tried to trip you up when preaching in the upon his field of labour." Among those who offered prayer were the Rev. S. Minton and the confusion around. All, however, was in the ing away their idols, and seeking instruction did not die, but at twenty-four lost his faculties, gil in his Æniad of a city in progress struck out by the instruction their ciniates mad to condus at the age of twenty-live, at the age of the naturally suggested itself to our souls, and the question, "Son of Man can these bones live?" year not less than 10,000 heathen, and adds, jurisprudence and letters. Pascal, whose genius developed itself at ten years old, did not attain a journey. At the appointed time I set off to the village accompanied by an aged minister, and lings, estimated to accompand 32 070; the In. village accompanied by an aged minister, and lings, estimated to accommodate 32,070; the Inbefore we came within some miles of the place, dependents, 41 chapels, seats 10,950; the Bapwe saw numbers of persons of all ages and tists, 21 chapels, seating 4.420. Besides these, colours bending their steps in that direction. there are 19 Primitive Methodists chapels; 15 Crowds of sable faces and woolly heads peering Methodist Free Church: 1 Quakers; 2 Unitarigave an interview, on the 5th of December, to a at us through the vistas, as if we had been some ans; 5 Jewish Synagogues; 7 Welsh Protessort of nondescript animals never before seen tant Churches, and one or two of other bodies.
Rev. Dr. Perkins, American Missionary to PerRev. Dr. Perkins, Amer

A Nation Born at Once.

their opposition to the principles of the Reformation as to render it undesirable for the Foreign Minister of England, even in the way of had managed to crush most of the females into hundred copies of "Pilgrim's Progress," in of Syracuse, uncle of Ferdinand II. of Naples; friendly advice, to bring the case of Matamoros the house, and the rest were outside as describand his fellow-sufferers before the Spanish Gov.

Italian. A benevolent gentleman of the city of the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Stralitz; and New York purchased two hundred additional now, latest of all, the King of Prussia. The prinernment. The Evangelical Alliance has since made it its business to obtain information on this question; and it has arrived at the conclusion question; and it has arrived at the conclusion are sufficiently. There distribution of evangelical truth. If means are press Dowager of Russia; Anna Paulowna, question; and it has arrived at the conclusion preach, said he, 'I am almost suffocated.' There furnished, the Society might do much in that Grand Duchess of Russia, sister of the King of General Miscellann.

Gems from Paschal. BORN 1623, DIED 1661.

1. It were to be wished that the enemies of religion would at least learn what it is before

2. Nothing betrays so much weakness of understanding, as not to perceive the misery of man without God. Nothing is a surer token of extreme baseness of spirit, than not to wish for the reality of eternal promises. No man so truly coward, as he that acts brave against heaven. 3. Under the Jewish economy truth appeared only in figure; in heaven it is without veil; in the Church it is veiled but discerned by its corbuilt upon the truth, so the truth is now distin-

4. When the Scriptures speak of the Messiah as great and glorious, it is evident they refer to

5. How delightful it is to behold, with the eye worship God in the spirit, rejoice in Christ they take a truth as the foundation of their error. Jesus, having no confidence in the flesh.' But This mistake lies, not in believing a falsehood, the whole is not yet told. Some years after I but in regarding one truth to the exclusion of

9. I see no greater difficulty in believing the 11. If our condition were really happy, we

12. His sacrifice continued through His life, forgive me? Of course I felt delighted, told hold it in subjection; do Thou enter, as into most awful apprehensions of eternal punishment treasure; or rather resume it to Thyself, for to tomed to the climate of Ireland. We endea- of the most zealous and successful agents in pro- river basins. The Rhone, for example, drains country; the Rhine, which has a length of 600 square miles into the Mississippi, which, by its windings, has a length of 3,560 miles. It is estimated that 1,800,000,000 tons of water fall daily into the Mediterranean, which, besides the great rivers that fall into it, receives more than twenty secondary rivers, and innumerable smaller streams. More than a fourth of the river water among whom very few arrived at an advancat Imbeck, named Henri Heinneken, whose prement. At two years he was as familiar with ancient history as the most erudite authors of antiquity. Sauson and Danville only could comcarried off in his fourth year.

Deaths in Royal Families.

The following personal items about royal families are interesting: Since January 1, 1860, fourteen members of the sovereign families of the Belgians; Princess Caroline, widow of the ummed up in a letter to Lord John Russell the myself, therefore, in that position, I commenced. The fruits of Popery, as now seen all over the Prince of Hohenzollern-Hechinger; and, at Con-