A party of dancers from here took in the number at Carrying Place, one evening last week. The weekly meeting of the Pedro Club took place at Chas. Dojan's on Monday evening. The winner of last prize was Mrs. Dojan; of second Mr. Brown. Mr. and Mrs. S. Whitney of Brighton have been visiting at D. Whitney's and Chas. Sager's. Mr. Milton Wood is visiting friends in Ottawa. Mr. and Mrs. A. Blakely were in Trenton on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. E. Wyoot attended Belleville market Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. H. Huxley of Concession were the guests of the latter's parents on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. S. Vanocht visited at B. Hixson's one day last week. Mrs. A. Wood was in Belleville on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Blakely and family were Sunday guests at W. W. Ward's at Concession.

FRANKFORD.

Feb. 2nd.—On Tuesday evening a lot of young people numbering 18 went to Stirling to attend the carnival there. All report a pleasant time. Mr. C. B. Meyers of Belleville spent Wednesday at the home of his brother, Mr. E. W. Wood. The Misses Cory entertained a number of their young friends on Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. James Fox and sons of Wooler spent Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bell. On Friday afternoon twelve of our townpeople attended the annual S.S. convention held at Johnston. There were two sessions, afternoon and evening. They were a fine time and both the sessions profitable. Reserved seats for the library concert are for sale at W. E. Windover's store. We are very much pleased to be able to report that Dr. and Mrs. Malone have arrived home after about four months' absence, through the illness of the Dr. He is recovering nicely and we are glad to welcome them home again. On Sunday mass was held in St. Francis church at 9 a.m. On Saturday evening Stirling and Frankford played a game of hockey, resulting 9-3 in favor of Frankford. The service was not very largely attended at the Methodist church on Sunday evening owing to the snow storm. The service in Trinity church was held at 11 a.m. on Sunday. Rev. B. F. Byers officiating. Don't forget the concert in aid of the public library to be held in Windover's hall on Friday evening, Feb. 12th. Come and enjoy the evening as a good program is being prepared.

PHILIPSTON.

Feb. 1st.—No need to wish for snow enough for sleighing for Sunday's storm provided enough and to spare. Mrs. John V. Ketchison who was taken suddenly ill a week ago with what the Dr. pronounced heart failure, at Mrs. Ketchison's home later is much better. Nurse Mott was nursing her but returned home on Sunday evening. Needless to say that we were very sorry to hear of her illness, as Mrs. Ketchison has always been and still is one of the most devoted and active of Christian women, especially so, for one of her age. Mr. and Mrs. Bard Phillips returned home on Wednesday evening after having spent several days visiting friends at Eldorado, Harold and Anson and spent a good time amongst their "old acquaintances" in the north. Miss Nellie Collins has been spending a few days visiting friends at Beeton. Mr. Harry Phillips and Miss Marie and Mr. John Owen made a trip to the city on Saturday via Halloway and G.T.R. having taken the early morning train, it gave a good long day, and although very cold they all enjoyed it. The boys visited the Y.M.C.A. Mr. Owen who is an engineer, was formerly a Philosopher boy, but since his removal some 12 years ago has lived in Moose Jaw, Sask. and Montreal, Que., and has taken advantage of the privilege afforded young men by Y.M.C.A.'s in other places. He thinks the accommodation at Belleville Y.M.C.A. is good. They also visited the lunch room in connection with the Y.M.C.A. and considered the dinner and service fine and the price moderate. The Phillippian Farmers' Club that was reorganized a few months ago is doing quite a business with a membership of about seventy. They have ordered and received one carload of feed and are ordering two more, and are beginning to realize some benefit of co-operation amongst the farmers. Mr. Benj. Sayers is president and Mr. Earl Denyes is secretary. Mr. M. B. Phillips and Mr. Harry Foster visited the city on Saturday with Mr. John Ray and Mr. Phillip Sayers were making their annual calls last week here.

Martin the Langtry block and will fit same for a garage. Mr. Morton will occupy the store vacated by Mr. Bol-drick in the same block. Mr. Bol-drick having moved his stock of fur to the McKee block. Mr. Frank Sprinckell will now be located in the new public library building, Mrs. Chas. VanAllen has bought from Mrs. Hiram Ferguson her fine residence at the north side of the village. We made an error in reporting that Mr. Mather had sold to Mr. VanAllen.

OAK HILLS.

Oak Hills, Feb. 8.—A large load from here were present at Mr. W. Fitchett's when their guests, Miss Blanche Barker was presented with a handsome parlor clock and silver sugar bowl. Miss Barker was so taken by surprise, it was difficult at first, though she made a suitable reply. After a few efficient speeches from friends a very dainty lunch was served, provided by the ladies (as it must be remembered the Oak Hill ladies are noted for their fine luncheons) after which the evening was spent in games and music. At a late hour the crowd broke up, feeling they had spent an enjoyable evening. The storm last week filled our roads so that the driving has been very poor, considering the countless pitch poles. Miss Elsie Eggleton entertained a few friends on Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Stapley and little son Kenneth, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bronson on Sunday last.
