RECENT DEATHS

COLIN KING.
Colin King, one of the best known and most highly respected residents of the Parish of Wilnot, Carleton County, died at his home in Lakeside on Sunday last. Mr. King, who has been a resident of the parish for many years, was born at Bellisle, Kings County, January 5th, 1834, moving to Lakeside in May, 1867, where he became a blacksmith by trade and carried on his business and that of farming until a few months ago. He took a prominent interest in everything calculated to benefit the county and represented his parish for many years in the municipal council, of which he was warden during his lifetime. He was one of the organizers of the first Sunday school convention held in Carleton County and has always taken a prominent part in Sunday school work. His death was due to an affection of the heart. His remains were interred in the Williams town burying ground and were followed to the grave by large numbers of his friends from all sections of the county.

Mr. King was married to Miss Mary Smith, who survives him. Three sons, James D., R. Burns and Colin M., and two daughters, Mrs. H. P. Curvell of Lakeside and Mrs. James W. Page of Long Settlement, are the family who survive. Three brothers and two sisters, who are residents of Carleton county, and Dr. W. G. King of Beaufort, Kent county, are his surviving brothers and sisters.

THURSDAY

An attractive wedding was solemnized last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Miss Stella Bagnall, daughter of Mrs. Stella Bagnall, was united in marriage to John Brown of this city by Rev. J. J. Macaskill. In the presence of the immediate relatives of the young couple, the bride wore a suit of cream, the bride was a charming bride, her wedding gown being of white tulle with the conventional veil and orange blossoms. Her going away gown was of dark green cloth, worn with hat of corresponding shade.

The choir rendered Kimmis's evening service in a very pleasing manner, and the anthem was the opening chorus of Mendelssohn's Hymn of Praise. About fifty were in the choir and all the music was very sweetly sung. The same singing will be heard in Trinity church next Sunday.

Mrs. Henry Hashey, of Camden St., received word yesterday of the sad situation which typhoid fever and death have brought about at her former home in Campbellton. Her sister, Mrs. Joachim Purdie, is dead at the Campbellton hospital, and her mother, leaving a child only a few weeks old, and her mother, Mrs. James Melanson, is being ill in the hospital, with the same disease, unaware of her daughter's death. It having been judged unwise to tell her in her present critical condition, Mrs. Hashey was last evening that she was expecting shortly to hear of her mother's death. Mrs. Purdie had been married fifteen months. She and her mother were taken to the hospital at the same time.

The resignation of Rev. W. W. McMaster, who has occupied the pulpit of the German street Baptist church for some time, was accepted last evening at a congregational meeting held after the regular prayer service. There was no discussion concerning the matter. The resignation is to take effect on November 15.

At last evening's meeting the members of the German street church un-
