Penalized For Selling Booze To Soldiers

Hamilton Tavern License Suspended For One Month.
Hamilton, Jan. 26.—The tavern license of the Vineyard Hotel, 24 Main street east, Hamilton, held by Mrs. Ida Wilson, has been suspended for one month, from 7 o'clock Saturday evening, January 29. James Kennedy, bartender, has had suspension of two months passed upon him. The Ontario License Board yesterday so decided after hearing evidence of supplying liquor to soldiers during prohibited hours. Mr. S. D. Biggar, on behalf of Mrs. Wilson, pleaded for a modification of the order, as the evidence, he said, unquestionably absolved her from any knowledge or connivance. Chairman Flavell and the other members of the board, however, see the regulations. Corporal William Haslam, stationed in Toronto, spoke of having been on special duty in Dundas town, and going to Hamilton on December 31 with the object of securing liquor during prohibited hours. In Hamilton he was accompanied by Lance-Corp Slater of the Military Police, and Corp. Macdonald. They secured beers and rums and just before they were going away Haslam bought two quart bottles of whiskey, which were produced in court.
