MISS B. K. SAXTON.

Dr. Chipman, of Grand Pre, had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse yesterday. The animal was left for a moment at the door of the Acadia Dairy Co's establishment while the Dr. went in to speak with the manager. A special train passing startled the animal, which ran away and coming in contact with the house at the corner of Front street and Central avenue had its leg broken. The horse was so badly injured as to be useless and was shot by Mr G. W. Munro, of the People's Bank. The animal was a favorite, and valued very highly by Dr Chipman.

Rev. W. E. Newcombe, of Thomaston, Me., spent a few days in town this week, and left on Tuesday for Truro to attend the meeting of the Baptist Convention. On account of ill-health, Mr Newcombe recently resigned the pastorate of the Baptist church at Thomaston, and has been spending the summer in the west. The church has delayed in accepting his resignation in hope that his health would so far improve as to make it possible for him to remain.

Mr and Mrs Fred Theakston, of New York, are guests at "Summer Hill Farm." They are accompanied by Mrs Theakston's sister, Mrs Lingo, and son, of the same city. In his boyhood Mr Theakston was a resident of Wolfville, being a son of Mr Major Theakston, who published the old ACADIAN. Mr Theakston has resided for seventeen years in New York and has prospered. He has always kept in touch with his old home, however, and is so well pleased with his present trip that he will probably return next season to spend the summer.

Beach Echoes.

Numerous picnics have attended the beach during the past week. Nearly every day brings private picnics, while on Wednesday we were visited by the Sabbath School picnic from Lockartville and on Friday Avonport, Hantsport, Falmouth and Canard, numbering about five hundred in all, held their annual picnics here.

Saturday proved an ideal day for the mammoth "Farmers' Picnic," which was easily the largest ever held at the beach. The earliest comers arrived by boat and reached here about 5 o'clock a m. A number of others came on the 6.30 and 10 trains and were driven from the station by teams from Grand Pre.

Others from all parts of Kings, as well as Hants Counties, came in teams, until the number present reached between two and three thousand. The day was spent both pleasantly and quietly and it certainly would not be amiss to say that a gathering of nicer looking and more orderly people and finer teams could not be found in the Dominion. Brief speeches were made by Mr. G. DeWolfe, Capt. C. O. Allen, Dr. Wilfred E. Harris, Dr. Balcom, Dr. Chipman and Councillor Schurman, of West Hants.

Mr and Mrs D'Almanic and family, accompanied by their friend Miss Gold, from St Andrews, took possession of Cottage D'Almanic on Monday.

Mr and Mrs Bienkhorn and family returned to their home in Caning, after three weeks spent at the beach. Mr and Mrs O. D. Harris have returned to Wolfville, having spent two weeks here.

Mr and Mrs Chambers and family also returned to their home on Monday, after spending four weeks vacation here.

Dr DeWitt's family arrived on Monday and are occupying Baberry Cottage.

Gite Cottage is occupied by Mrs F. A. Shand and daughters, of Windsor. Miss Shand, also of Windsor, accompanies them.

Prof. J. Edmund Bars, of Conn., visited his aunt, Mrs E. W. Sawyer, on Tuesday of this week.

Mr Philip Hill, of Truro, and his friend, Mr Sidney Dumesque, of Halifax, were the guests of Mrs C. E. Hill on Saturday and Sunday.

The Hantsport Baptist Sabbath School held an enjoyable picnic here on Tuesday.

On Wednesday a Raymond and Wilton's picnic numbering thirty-five paid a visit to Evangeline beach.
