Killed in Action.

Mr. W. W. Pines, of Waterville, has received the intelligence that his son, Capt. Henry Hoyt Pines, was killed in action on July 21st.

Cap. Pines was a graduate of Acadia and well known in Wolfville where he was very popular, as indeed he was wherever he went. He was twenty-four years of age. In 1911, holding a commission as Lieutenant, he accompanied the Canadian soldiers to London and took part in the coronation ceremonies. In 1914 he was admitted to the bar. He was a splendid type of manhood and the news of his death was heard with genuine sorrow.

Capt. Pines's promotion came after going overseas, and while acting Captain at the time of his death it is understood that he had quite recently been granted a commission as Major. Profound sympathy is felt throughout the county for the parents, bereaved of an only son.

Soldiers to Go Haying.

Principal Canning, Truro, visited the Acting Minister of Militia and Defence, Ottawa, asking that the soldiers in the different training camps be allowed to return to their homes for a little time to assist in harvesting the imminent crop of hay we have had in Nova Scotia for years.

Principal Canning made it particularly strong in regard to the helplessness of the farmers to house this big hay yield without the assistance of their boys in uniform. In reply, Principal Canning has received the following from the Acting Minister: Orders have been issued to Military Districts and Camp Commandants to grant furlough for hay; advice is not sufficient.

A reunion and re-organization of the class 1879 at Acadia was held at Wolfville last week. The survivors of the class: Dr. C. K. Harrington, of Tokio, Japan; G. B. Medley, Sioux City, Mo.; R. O. Haley, St. John, N. B.; W. P. Shaffer, Kentville; Harry Ruggles, Bridgetown; O. O. Forsythe, Port Hawkesbury; C. B., met on Wednesday afternoon in the reception room of the Seminary and re-organized. In the evening a dinner was held at Acadia Villa Hotel. On Thursday they started for the "Look Out" and Aldershot and had supper at Mrs. Harrington's, Kentville. All the gentlemen except Mr. Forsythe were accompanied by their wives.

If Nehemiah Should Come?

To the Editor of THE ACADIAN: Sir,—When Nehemiah, in the olden times, came to oversee the rebuilding of Jerusalem he found a prevalence of heathen customs, particularly in the matter of Sabbath desecration. If he should come to Kings County, N. S., today he would find similar conditions. In 445 B. C. he "saw some treading wine-presses on the Sabbath and bringing in sheaves and loading asses, also men of Tyre, which brought fish and all manner of ware, and sold on the Sabbath to the children of Judah and Jerusalem." In 1916 A. D. he would see wares of various kinds bought and sold, the sacred hours given up to stultic pleasures, railway trains in operation, and perhaps most dreadful of all, members of churches using their vehicles to minister for filthy lucre to the illicit desire of the soldiers for selfish pleasure.

If Nehemiah should come to our community he would find a criminal acquiescence in this heathen practice on the part of those who are the custodians of the Sabbath Institution. In 445 B. C. the nobles were allowing the desecration to take place without protest, while they started in the profits. In 1916 A. D. he would find a like acquiescence and profit-sharing.

If Nehemiah should come he would protest against the desecration and denounce it as a national menace. In 445 B. C. he "contended with the nobles of Judah and said unto them, 'What evil is this that ye do, and profane the Sabbath day? Did not our fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon Israel by profaning the Sabbath?'" In 1916 A. D. he would urge the application of the same principle, and point to the desecration as inimical to the welfare of the country.

And in so doing he would not make allowance for the abnormal conditions created by the war. In 445 B. C. the conditions were abnormal. For years the heathen customs had prevailed, until the people might have agreed against a sudden change. In 1916 A. D. he would see in our national crisis an opportunity and an appeal to seek the favor of God by the simple rule of keeping His commandments.

We apply the term "Huns" to the Germans by way of characterizing their lapse into barbarism. May they not, with equal propriety, characterize our desecration of the Sabbath as a reversion to the heathen type? and may not our trampling upon God's command be as offensive in His sight as the heathen atrocities?

HUSBAND SAVED HIS WIFE

Stopped Most Terrible Suffering by Getting Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Daniou, Texas.—"After my little girl was born two years ago I began suffering with female trouble and could hardly do my work. I was very nervous and but just kept dragging on until last summer when I got where I could not do my work. I would have a chill every day and hot flashes and dizzy spells and my head would almost burst. I got where I was almost a walking skeleton and life was a burden to me until one day my husband's step-sister told me that if he did not do something for me I would not last long and told her to get your medicine. So he got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me. After taking the first three doses I commenced to improve. I continued the medicine and in a few days had my regular periods. They did for me what doctors could not do and I will always praise it wherever I go."—Mrs. G. O. Lowrey, 418 W. Montrose Street, Daniou, Texas.

If you are suffering from any form of female ill, get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and commence the treatment without delay.
