

LOCAL NEWS AND PERSONAL ITEMS

The Observer asks every reader to help make this page interesting by contributing any local news or personal items they may have about. The editor must depend on the parties and their family, so send them all. Don't blame the editor if what you expect to see is not here. If you have not yourself taken the pains to see that the office was informed of the item, something in the nature of advertising appearing in these columns must be paid for at the rate of 5 cents a line. This applies to Cards of Thanks, Announcements of Meetings or Societies, For Sale, Wanted, Lost, Found, etc. Charged items will be 15 cents a line. Better send the money with the item, enclosing six words as a line. No advertisement less than 25c.

Miss Blanche Kelley intends leaving today for a visit in Boston.

Dr. Belyea is now nearly located in the Curtis house on Maple street.

F. E. Sayre of Hartland wants to buy bank logs along the St. John river. Will contract for some now.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Miller intend leaving today for a trip to Montreal, Hamilton and other Canadian cities.

Miss Beatrice Nevers is home from Maine, to spend the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hagerman.

A foot of snow in New York State during Monday evening, and as yet not sufficient here to whiten the ground.

Mrs. George Teddie of Lower Brighton phones The Observer that yesterday she picked a bouquet of pansies from her garden.

Miss Mary Albright, who early in the fall went to Winsted, Conn., to enter a hospital as a student nurse, has returned to Hartland, having voluntarily given up the work.

Mrs. George A. Boyer, who came here a bride from England shortly after the close of the war, arrived in Hartland for a few days stay last week, after two years spent in England.

The many friends of Mrs. Sidney Hagerman will be glad to know that she is much improved in health. She has been out for an auto ride.

Mrs. Henry Bradley, while visiting her sister, Mrs. Wilmet Burt, at Upper Woodstock, took a notion to assist in the cooking and discovered an egg that was a rather unusual freak in that it contained a second perfect egg inside the outer shell.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Elkins returned from Presque Isle last week. Friends will be glad to learn Mrs. Elkins is gaining after two operations and several weeks in the hospital. She will spend the winter at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lovely, Gordonsville.

The Older Boys' Conference for the counties of Victoria, Carleton, York and Sunbury will open at the Baptist church at Hartland next Friday, and the complete program will be published in The Observer next week. It is expected that about 100 boys will come for the event.

Very soon a new Town Council will be in order. The Observer has heard of no new aspirants for office, nor has it heard of any particularly adverse criticism of the Board whose term will expire early in January. The citizens as a whole seem well satisfied with the work of the present council.

Scott McAnley and his crew completed the work of rebuilding the river road from the town limits to a point near Hale's siding on Nov. 21. Mr. McAnley has done an excellent job, and says that in six years of road-building this is the latest he has ever worked. Twenty culverts were put in.

Advertising space for the Christmas holidays should be secured right now. Get'em started into shopping early. Call up or at the office for space reservations before next issue. Don't put it off.

G. O. Nevers of Carleton was a caller at The Observer office on Monday.

E. W. Melville, the veteran representative of the Parish of Peel at the County Council, was a visitor in town on Monday.

Mrs. J. E. Cook entertained at a bean supper Thursday evening in honor of her Sunday school class and that of Miss Kingston. Supper was served at 6:30 o'clock and at its conclusion games were played and a jolly good time was spent throughout the evening.

The death occurred at Stickney, on Wednesday of Robert E. Hunter, a well known farmer of that place. Deceased was 72 years of age and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Eric Rayburn of Port Elgin, and three sisters, Mrs. W. B. Dayton, of North Devon, Mrs. John W. Garrity, of Watertown, Mass., and Mrs. David Underhill, of Hartland.

Each night H. H. Hatfield entertains a good audience of friends at a radio concert at his home. On Sunday evening, Rev. Dr. Duncan, pastor of a Methodist church at Pittsburg, was distinctly heard. It will be recalled that this same gentleman was here this summer a guest of Rev. Thomas Pierce. Last evening Hon. Lloyd George was heard delivering an election speech in London. Marvellous, isn't it?

Last Thursday Centreville and Lakeville became the richer by a Hospital Aid of their own, and Carleton County Hospital by $54.00, the handsome sum donated by the people of Centreville for the tiled floor. It only remains for Hartland to organize, when this most necessary and important move toward a better working concern, which the Woodstock Ladies C. C. Hospital Aid undertook two weeks ago, will be completed.—Press.
