"And the Child in the Arms of its Mother."
MRS. FRANK E. NADAU AND CHILD.
A BRIGHT, HEALTHY BOY whose life was saved by GRODER'S SYRUP.
A Mother Speaks to Mothers.
THE GRODER DYSPEPSIA CURE CO.
GENTLEMEN—My child is the picture of health today. I headed the advice of a friend and tried your remedy. Our baby was cutting his teeth last spring, and like many other children at such a time, he became very sick and feverish.
We were so anxious about him that we called in two physicians, and did all in our power. But he grew so much worse that we feared for his life.
I was then told of your "KIND" remedy, and I bought a bottle, which we gave each hour brought speedy relief.
Our boy rallied quickly and soon became himself again. Other mothers have children who suffer precisely as mine did.
They should use your remedy and keep it constantly in the house and keep house. I would not think my children safe without it.
Very gratefully yours,
MRS. FRANK E. NADAU,
FAIRFIELD, MAINE.
PRICE $1.00 PER BOTTLE.
At All Druggists.
None Genuine unless bearing our Trade Mark,
THE BEAVER.
A printed Guarantee with each bottle.
THE GRODER DYSPEPSIA CURE CO., LTD.
SAINT JOHN, N. B.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla
Stands at the head of all blood medicines. This position it has secured by its intrinsic merit, sustained by the opinion of leading physicians, and by the certificates of thousands who have successfully tested its remedial worth.
No other medicine so effectively
CURES
Scrofula, boils, pimples, eruptions, cat-arrhs, and all other blood troubles.
"There is nothing so good as the Sarsaparilla."
At last I took four bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and was completely cured. I can earnestly recommend it as a splendid blood purifier."—J. S. Burt, Upper Koswick, New Brunswick.

troubles, and all other blood troubles."

THE PUZZLE.
(Conclusion.)
I turned to look at the box. There could be no doubt about it the noise was louder. And if I could trust my eyes, the box was moving—giving a series of little jumps. This might have been an optical illusion, but it seemed to me that at each tick the box gave a little bound. During the screeches—which sounded more like the cries of an animal in an agony of pain even than before—if it did not tilt itself first on one end then on the other, I shall never be willing to trust the evidence of my own eyes again. And surely the box had increased in size; I could have sworn not only that it had increased, but that it was increasing, even as I stood there looking on. It had grown and still was growing, both broader and longer, and deeper. Pugh, of course, would have attributed it to supernatural agency; there never was a man with such a power for a ghost. I could picture him occupying my position, shivering in his nightgown, as he beheld that miracle taking place before his eyes—
The solution which at once suggested itself to me—and which would never have suggested itself to Pugh!—was that the box was fashioned, as it were, in layers, and that the ingenious mechanism it contained was forcing the sides at once both upwards and outwards. I took it in my hand. I could feel something striking against the bottom of the box, like the tap, tap, tapping of a tiny hammer.

own eyes again. And surely the box
had increased in size; I could have
sworn not only that it had increased,
and longer, and deeper. Pugh, of course,
would have attributed it to supernatural
him occupying my position, shivering
miracle taking place before his eyes—
both upwards and outwards. I took it
striking against the bottom of the box,
like the tap, tap, tapping of a tiny hammer.

THE PUZZLE.
(Conclusion.)
I turned to look at the box. There
could be no doubt about it the noise
to me that at each tick the box gave a
own eyes again. And surely the box
