THE GATINEAU MURDER.

Strange Story Told by a Dying Man.

OTTAWA, May 31.—The Free Press says: A very curious version of the Gatineau murder is now going the rounds of the press. Brisbois, who is at present incarcerated in Aylmer gaol, will be glad to learn that after all he did not murder his companion Hennessy, but that two other men murdered them both. The story is as follows:—"Antoine Brisbois was found murdered in his trapping hut up the Ottawa. His furs and money were missing, and so was his partner, Patrick Hennessy, upon whom the crime was laid. That happened two years ago. Hennessy was never discovered. Lately Felix Racicot and Cyrus Greenover, lumbermen, were crushed by a heavy log. Racicot was told that he would speedily die. He then confessed that he and Greenover murdered both Brisbois and Hennessy, concealing the latter's body. Those who heard this revelation hurried out to fetch a justice, and in their absence Greenover crawled from his couch, though dangerously hurt, and pulled the bandages from the dying Racicot so as to silence him in death before the official came to write out his confession."

The Mansion House Committee resolved to-day that it would be compelled to close its operations in a month unless more money is received.

GARIBALDI'S PROGRAMME.

La Capitale publishes a letter from Garibaldi, addressed to his constituents in Rome, admitting that the House of Savoy has powerfully aided in the regeneration of Italy, but accusing it of having afterwards ruined the country. Garibaldi recommends a dissolution of the army, and that nothing be given to the priests. He concluded by urging the people to hiss all prominent members of the Right as they leave the Chamber of Deputies. The paper containing the letter was seized by the police.

BURMESE DISTURBANCES.

There are disturbances in Upper Burmah, close to our frontier. On Monday three men disguised as monks, with 25 followers, crossed the frontier and burnt a village. Rumours are current of a great pitched battle, in which the insurgents were victorious.

CHILI AND PERU.

ANOTHER FISHERY QUESTION.

A correspondent at St. Petersburg telegraphs that Privy Counsellor Shiskin, the Russian Minister to Washington, has recently had several interviews with the Czar, and also with the leading members of the Cabinet. It is understood affairs seriously affecting the interest of the two countries have been under consideration. Russia has made frequent complaints concerning the alleged deterioration of her fisheries on the Pacific coast of her Provinces, owing to the incessant operations of American whalers. Russia demands that America pay a stipulated sum annually for the privilege of fishing off her Pacific coasts, but the latter considers the price exorbitant. The United States also question the correctness of the statements of Russia. The Russian Government, on the other hand, proposes to despatch a cruiser to investigate. It is understood that the negotiations are proceeding in an amicable spirit, and there is little doubt that a satisfactory adjustment will be reached.

THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE.

Col. Gordon (Gordon Pasha), in a pamphlet, says the Khedive of Egypt and his subordinates permitted the resuscitation of the slave trade in Central Africa. "Every order I gave," he says, "concerning the suppression of this abomination has been cancelled. It is time we should cease to accept the evasive excuses of the Egyptian authorities. A decided message delivered by the English and French Governments would have a great effect. The slave trade will never be put down by the voluntary action of Egypt under the present ruler."

The five entered were those of Messrs. William Darling & Co., Morland, Watson & Co., Sterling & McCall, John Cully & Co. and Carvill, Barr & Co. They attempted to enter the establishments of Fairbanks & Co., scale makers, and John G. Mackenzie & Co., dry goods dealers, but failed. The thieves evidently entered over the gateway of Messrs. Peck, Berney & Co., ascended to the roof of John Cully & Co., by means of a ladder, and descending into the office, opened the drawers, but finding nothing, they then apparently entered the establishment of Messrs. Carvill, Barr & Co., also by the roof, and ransacked the drawers, obtaining therein $13.50. Returning, they broke through the roof door of Messrs. Morland, Watson & Co., cutting the rope fastening, but upon ransacking the office found nothing. They then entered the store of Messrs. Stirling & McCall, but secured nothing there. Their visits to the other establishments were equally fruitless, except that to Messrs. W. Darling & Co., where they obtained $5 in cash after breaking open the drawers of every desk in the office. They are supposed to have been inexperienced thieves, as no safes were attempted, and no burglars' tools were found.

$500 Reward—Catarrh Cured.

Some people would rather be humbugged than to get "Value received" for their money. Hence it is that such persons run after this and that pretended cure for catarrh, forgetting that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is so positive in its effects that its former proprietor advertised it for years throughout the United States under a positive guarantee, offering $500 reward for an incurable case, and was never called upon to pay this reward, except in two cases. This remedy has acquired such a fame that a branch office has been established in London, England, to supply the foreign demand for it. Sold by druggists at 50 cents.

UNABLE TO BREATHE THROUGH NOSE.

PORTLANDVILLE, Iowa, March 11th, 1879.

DR. R. V. PIERCE:—

DEAR SIR,—Some time ago I bought a Douche, some of your Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and Golden Medical Discovery, and commenced to use them. The aches and pains, as well as sore throat and catarrh from which I have been for so long a time a sufferer, have entirely left me with their use. I feel like a new man as well as look like one. For four years I was unable to breathe through my nose. From the use of the Catarrh Remedy I can now do so freely. Your medicines I know to be all that they are represented. Long live Dr. Pierce and the gentlemen connected with him.

Gratefully yours,

WATSON SMITH.
