FOR SCOTLAND. - Mr. and Mr James Dallas, of Tuckersmith, and Mrs. A. G. McDougall, of Seaforth, left here on Thursday for the old country. They sail from Quebec on Saturday by one of the Allan Line boats. They expect to be absent about six weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Dallas go for the benefit of their health, and Mrs. McDougall to visit friends. We wish them all bon voyage. It is 33 years since Mr. Dallas left Scot-Branch of the Agricultural Society upon paid to the treasurer of the Society upon the order of the Reeve. The section of the By-law fixing the collector's salary for the and Mrs. Dallas will return fully restored to their former health.

INTERMEDIATE EXAMINATION. --- We are glad to learn that Mr. Wm. McKay, a pupil of Seaforth High School, formerly reported Grade B, has upon appeal re-ceived Grade A. The number of marks required on the total for Grade A was 720. Mr. McKay made 742 on the total, or 22 marks over the required stan dard. He, however, fell two marks below the standard on composition, according to the original report. On re-vision by the Central Committee, this mark has been raised and a A certificate thought expedient to proceed further with the business of the council, and it the Seaforth High School is therefore: One A, seven B's, and five C's, out of twenty-five candidates. CHINESE CORN. -- Mr. Geo. McIntosh of McKillop, has left with us a curiosity in the shape of a stalk of Chinese corn. This corn was grown on Mr. McIntosh's farm, from seed brought from China by his brother-in-law, Rev Dr. McKay. The principal peculiarity about it is that Mr. Walter Campbell, son of M. the heads grow in clusters. On the stalk we have, there are four heads D. O. Cameron left on Wednesday grown out together. The stalk also and the leaves are considerably darker than Mrs. West and Mrs. Hadwin left here Date a last weak corn was planted early in the spring, and
