The Mail threatens to smash Confederation into atoms if the Bleus withdraw their support from Sir John Macdonald -in other words, it says in effect that if things do not run to suit the Tory party old time Tory tactics will be resorted to and probably the Parliament buildings may be burned. When the Parnellites united with the Tories to defeat the Gladstone Government. Mr. Gladstone made no threat of vengeance against the Irish people. To have done su would have been silly and unpatriotic. But the Mail can be both silly and un-
