The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

I am over thirty. All my girl chums are married. I do not think that I shall ever marry. I might as well make up my mind to that. But even if I am not going to marry, I am not going to be an 'old maid,' not so our kind. I have decided that, and I have also decided that the way to do it is to keep in touch with young life. Since I am to have no children of my own, I am going to try to be interested in and as much with my girl friends' children as is possible.

That is the decision that a young woman whom I know made a year ago.

And in that year it has actually so changed and sweetened her from the rather embittered and self-sufficient young person which she was then, that her acquaintances are continually saying to each other:

"What has come over Louise? She has improved so."

And that decision is the secret. Isn't it a splendid one?

Think of the people that have been affected by it.

There are Louise's friends who today enjoy her bright, jolly presence. Whereas a year ago they almost avoided her caustic, self-sufficient ways.

There are Louise's father and mother, who are delighted beyond words, at having their daughter so much happier and more contented.

There are the half dozen of her friends' children who have learned to call her "Aunt Louise," and to rush to the door to greet her whenever she comes to see them.

And best of all, there is Louise herself, who is replacing discontent and dreariness and unrest by contentment and peace and serenity.

I remember years ago hearing a very fine unmarried woman of forty five or fifty say, as she looked at another woman's baby:

"That is the hardest thing in my life to me. I don't mind so much being called an old maid. I don't mind so much not being a wife, but the terrible thing is to think that I shall never be a mother—that no little boy or girl will ever say that dear word 'mother' to me."

It seems to me as if deep down in her heart every unmarried woman must have the same feeling, and cannot think of anything finer than her friends' determination to be another by proxy, since she cannot be a real one.

I wonder if there are not some unmarried women among my readers who might make their own and their friends' lives sweeter by adopting that resolution.

Women's Secrets

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-a-million women, in a practice of over 40 years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases.

Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. All replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising whatever, upon them. Write without fear as without fee, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

Household Notes.

A little muriatic acid added to the rinsing water after a blue or white rug is scrubbed with soap and water will help restore the color.

A perforated rubber mat is almost an essential when the drain board of the sink is of porcelain. It saves many an ugly chip on fine china.

Arrowroot is excellent for thickening sauces made of fruit juices as it neither clouds the mixture nor destroys the flavor of the fruit.

The small jars in which candy sometimes comes should be saved for picnic use and lunches, as they are excellent for carrying salad and sauces.

For almond cake filling, Blanche and pound a pound of almonds, add two eggs, a cupful of sugar and a teaspoonful of vanilla and spread between layers.

Cooked beets, hollowed out and pickled in spiced vinegar, may be filled with minced celery and apple and served on lettuce leaves with oil and vinegar.

A delicious flavor is added to the maraschino cherries used in or as a decoration for fruit or other salad by stuffing them with pecan nuts, chopped rather coarse.

A good plan is to place pieces of Canton flannel between plates when they are piled in the china closet. It reduces the danger of breakage and prevents rattling.

A clean cloth dipped in hot water, then in a saucer of bran, will speedily clean white paint without scratching it in the least. The soft bran acts like soap on the dirt.

For falling hair, try massaging the scalp nightly with a lotion of lime water and half an ounce of tincture of cantharides.

Cushion covers, especially designed for plaza use, come stencilled in most artistic designs, and may be had in a variety of colors: They are lenin, crash, burlap, men's cloth and linen.

Boiled radishes are dainty. Cut them into rounds about half an inch thick, boil ten minutes in slightly salted water and fry in butter until tender. They should be highly seasoned.

If the colored candles used for guest tables and other festive occasions become soiled before they are used, they can be nicely washed with a soft brush, white soap and warm water.

If fringed napkins look worn because the fringe is thin and uneven, cut it off, draw a few threads and hemstitch the napkins. They will make very attractive dollies and will last a long time.

A sticky bread or cake pan should not be cleaned with a knife or anything that will scratch the surface and make more sticking probable. A crust of bread is the best cleanser to use.

A good sponge cloth for the dining table can be made of a double thickness of white flannel, laid with the soft side on the inside and quilted on the machine, edged with binding of white tape.

When making a solid black chocolate cake, it is well to take it from the oven a moment before it seems done. A few minutes too much heat dries out the cake and it loses much of the flavor.

T. P. Union --- Officers' Report, 1910

To the Members of the St. John's Truckmen's Protective Union.

Gentlemen,—In accordance with our custom on similar occasions in the past, before vacating our offices, we wish to give you a brief resume of the affairs and workings of the Union during the past year, but before doing so will take advantage of this opportunity of congratulating the members upon the attainment of this its twelfth Anniversary.

The Union opened the year in October with a large and most enthusiastic meeting.

Early in the year, after some discussion, it was decided that a Delegate in connection with the Union be appointed, and the Executive were empowered to draft rules for his guidance. At a subsequent meeting he submitted same for your approval, and after a lengthy debate, participated in by many members, the following Resolution was moved and carried:

"Resolved,—That in the opinion of the Union a Delegate in connection with it is unnecessary, and no appointment of such should be made."

On Labor Day the Union in conjunction with the other Unions of the city took part in the celebrations, and we are pleased to report that in the various events of that day our members were most prominent and successful. We feel that we cannot do this opportunity pass without extending to our Brother Member, Mr. John Thomas, our hearty congratulations on his success in the Marathon Race, and in being the winner of the most coveted prize of the day, the beautiful cup donated by the Hon. the Premier, Sir E. P. Morris, and to Mr. Frank Jeans, the gentleman who coached our brother member, we extend most sincere thanks.

We also congratulate our brother members Messrs. Gregory Clooney, Jeremiah Clooney, William Dooly and John King who were the lucky winners of four gold and two silver medals which were the trophies awarded to them for gaining three first and three second places in the events competed in by them.

On Sept. 29th a dinner was held at Smithville at which many members and guests were present and had a most enjoyable time.

We have to again tender our thanks to the Mercantile Community, our Solicitor, Hon. Sir E. P. Morris, the Editors of the daily papers and the public generally for many acts of kindness extended to us during the year.

We are pleased to state that the health of the Union has been exceptionally good during the past year, there being no death within our ranks.

Twenty members were added to the roll during the year which now numbers 150.

The sum of Five Hundred and Seventy Dollars was paid from the funds within the year as benefits to members who through accidents were deprived of their horses.

Speaking in a general sense the Union has had a very successful year, and is in a good condition financially as you will see from the following extract from the Treasurer's report:

Balance on hand and cash in Bank, Oct. 1909.	$943.77
Total amount received from all sources during the year.	558.14
	$1,501.91
Expenses	$873.42
Balance in Bank and cash on hand	628.49

In conclusion we wish to thank you for your kindness to us during the past year, and pray that God may in His wisdom guide you in the selection of our successors.

Signed on behalf of the officers:
NICHOLAS J. MURPHY, President.
JOHN J. NEVILLE, Secretary.

Daughters of the Empire.

In the British Hall at 3 p.m. yesterday a meeting was held to listen to a delegation from the Canadian Chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire. The delegates consisted of Miss Merritt, Miss Auden, Miss Hughes and Miss Young.

Lady Horwood was called to the chair and introduced the Organizing Secretary who outlined the objects of the Society and made reference to work already accomplished.

The subject matter of the speech has already been set forth in the Evening Telegram. There is a Chapter of the Order in New York whose members are Newfoundlanders, and at their suggestion the visit was being paid. It was hoped to form an Imperial Chapter, shortly and to hold a Congress next year in London, much on the lines of the Imperial Press Conference.

On motion of Lady Whiteaway, seconded by Mrs. White, it was decided to form a National Chapter for Newfoundland. The election of officers was then proceeded with, and the first officers elected were:—President, Lady Horwood; Vice-President, Mrs. R. G. Reid; Second Vice-President, Mrs. W. C. Job; Treasurer, Mrs. J. A. Chitt; Standard Bearer, Miss Goodridge; Secretary, Mrs. C. Macpherson.

All the ladies in the audience signed the roll of the Order and became members. Other addresses of a pleasing nature were given by the ladies of the delegation.

In addition to the ladies in the ## Fishermen, Be Careful.

Now that the fishermen are coming here to land their fish they should be careful and keep the cabins and forecastles of their craft secured when they leave their vessel, if they want to keep their property safe from the hands of certain tight-fingered gents who prowled around the docks. Tuesday night a man saw a suspicious character come out of the forecastle of a craft at an East End wharf. There was no person on board at the time and the stranger seemed to have a parcel under his arm. Whether it was stolen or not the man could not tell. Too often outboard men leave their crafts unprotected and with the different apartments on board open to all-comers. Such carelessness is almost like an invitation to the dishonest, and the wonder is that more thefts do not occur.

BLUE JACKET A DESERTER.

Tuesday one of the blue jackets of the Calypso, after obtaining shore leave donned civilian attire, and when his leave was up did not return to the ship. It is now believed that he has deserted and a warrant has been issued for his arrest.
