A Pleasant Evening.

The large audience present in the Presbyterian Hall last night spent a very pleasant evening. The "entertainers" gave a grand concert there and of such great merit that the audience continuously applauded and were delighted with the performance. The one act comedy "Betsy Baker" was the first on the programme and proved most interesting. Those who took part in it were:—Messrs. A. S. Harvey, J. F. Smiley, Master W. Harvey and Misses L. Hudson and S. Ivany. The next was a musical sketch entitled "Nations." Those who took part were attired in distinctive and very appropriate costumes, and the different vocal numbers were faultlessly rendered. Miss B. Ross accompanied on the piano, Mr. Miller, banjo and Mr. Thompson, mandolin. The concert was in aid of the St. Andrew's Young Ladies' Guild. The characters in the sketch were:—
Newfoundland—A. S. Harvey.
John Bull—S. Willis.
Scotland—Miss M. McKinley.
Iceland—Miss Jean Strang.
Canada—J. F. Smiley.
Uncle Sam—H. Mitchell.
Spain—Miss S. Irving.
Japan—Miss W. Harvey.
France—Miss M. West.
Germany—Miss E. Ramsey.
India—Miss M. McLean.
Italy—Miss E. Tait.
Denmark—Miss G. Gibb.

Not in the Ambulance.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—On reading the Telegram to-night I was surprised to find an item in the local events which read: "Mrs. Buckley, 6 James' St., was conveyed to the Hospital last night in the ambulance." Now I want to deny this, as I personally procured the services of Mr. Power, cabman, of Barron Street, to drive above patient and went with her to the Hospital door. We left our house in the carriage at noon. So you see who ever gave your reporter the above information was entirely wrong.
Thanking you for space, I beg to remain,
Yours, etc.,
ANNIE J. BUCKLEY.
St. John's, Nfld., April 27th, 1911.

Hints to Household.

PROFESSOR HENRY ADAMS in his Presidential Address to the Institute of Sanitary Engineers early in 1908, said:—"Gas fires for heating are already widely adopted for offices, consulting rooms where a fire may be required at short notice. I have had a room in my office for the last thirty years and do not find any of the ill effects that have been ascribed to them."
Gas fires are universally used by federal men in London, and they recommend them for use in the homes of their patients.
The Coal Smoke Abatement Society, among whose members are many men of high scientific and artistic attainment, are strong advocates of the use of gas for heating. The Society carried out a most elaborate series of tests with gas fires, etc., in May and June, 1906.

The Reid Ships Change Captains.

When the summer service opens here will be some change in the captains of the Reid Nfld. Co.'s ships. Capt. Jacob Kean formerly chief officer of the Invermore takes command of the Home, and Capt. A. Blandford who had charge of that ship will command the Glenace; Capt. Spracklin, of the Glenace, goes in charge of the Invermore on the Port aux Basques-North Sydney route; Capt. D. Blandford will remain in the Dundee, and Capt. Job Kneel will be in command of the Clyde.

Backache Suffering

A wonderful medicine is this man's description of DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.
Mr. Fred Gummer, Lillies, Ont., writes: "I can honestly say that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are a wonderful medicine. For six weeks last fall I could scarcely walk around for pains in the back and legs, and was almost completely unfit for work. Though I tried several medicines I got no better. I saw Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills advertised and bought five boxes. After I had used three boxes, I was greatly improved and by the time I had them all taken felt as well as I ever did. I would advise anyone suffering from kidney disease to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.
"We have also used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for bad colds and sore throat and would not be without these medicines for anything."
Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto. Write for a free copy of Dr. Chase's Recipe Book.

City Council Meeting.

There were present at the regular weekly meeting of the City Council last night Councillors Martin, Ryan, Coaker, Myrick and Channing.
A letter from the Colonial Secretary informed the Board that the Inspector General was making provision for the examination of automobile drivers, and certificates would be granted to those only who were found to be qualified to drive.
Mr. Harris of the Board of Works writing saying that the fence around the Barracks' yard would be attended to by the Government.
The Mercantile Co-operative Co. will be given leave to put in a gas engine and to repair their buildings on the south side.
The application of H. Blatch to build a garage at Tesser Place could not be given as the Council has no control over the land referred to.
In reply to a letter from A. H. O'Keefe, asking whether a committee of the Trades and Labor Council would be allowed to attend meetings the Council would have no objection to their coming.
Mrs. Gosling wrote the Council offering to provide a drinking fountain in one of the coves for horses. The Council will gladly accept the offer and feel very thankful to Mrs. Gosling for her generosity.
Richard Purcell will have to get the approval of the Engineer before erecting an addition to his house on Prospect Street.
Mr. F. W. Knight again asked for information about water extension on the South Side.
Jonas Barter will be allowed to build a stable on Belvidere Street.
Councillor Coaker suggested: "cleaning up day," when the public would be asked to co-operate with the citizens and clean up their back yards. The sanitary staff would be on a spurt and citizens who have horses would be asked to give help in the work of carting all the refuse outside the city. The work would be done quickly and all at one time. The Board agreed and the work will commence as soon as the snow melts.
The Health Officer reported several cases of diphtheria, six of typhoid and one of scarlet fever the past week. There are now 27 cases of diphtheria, six of typhoid, four of smallpox and one of scarlet.

Doff Those Hats.

Again there is a great outcry in the city on the part of the unfortunate men who go to the Nickels and are compelled to sit behind the monster hats which some ladies of St. John's wear. The men go to see the show not the hats and they intend in future—being compelled to do so—to stand while the performances are on so that they may see the stage.

DIPHTHERIA.—A young woman residing on New Gower St. developed diphtheria yesterday and was taken to the hospital.

Special to Evening Telegram.
HONG KONG, April 28.
The only official messages received from Canton, where a revolutionary outbreak occurred last night are of a disquieting character. The revolutionists have obtained a quantity of explosives. Many of the leaders have been imprisoned. Fighting between the troops and rioters began when soldiers arrested the revolutionary leaders who were carrying revolvers and wearing badges, boldly proclaiming their purpose of surrounding the Viceroy's Palace. After setting it on fire, they interfered with the efforts of others to extinguish the flames. The revolutionaries, who were armed with rifles and bombs, fought desperately. Several were killed and many arrested. The fire at the Palace burned for two hours, the Viceroy escaping without injury. Thousands of the residents of Canton are fleeing to this city. Those who have arrived say that anarchy is rife among the soldiers, and that the officers do not trust their men.
LONDON, April 28.
The bye-election at Cheltenham took place to-day. In December the seat was won by Mr. Matthias, for the Liberals, by a small majority over Viscount Duncannon. An election petition was lodged, and Matthias was unseated through the illegal practices of agents. The Unionists put up Col. J. T. Agg-Gardiner, a former Conservative member, who had been returned by acclamation. He was elected over the Liberal candidate by a majority of 4.

Tim Shannahan Gives the 'Cute Man's Version of the 'Linker'

Of all the jades that we meet I think his nbs is hard to beat: "The Linker" who'll take you in tow. For he never knows when to let go.
So sang the Cute Man last night.
"Yes," said he, as he chewed his frankum, "there are many queer fish in this town, but I think the 'Linker' is the one. You'll remember, I said he, "that last winter I paid some attention to the 'unloaded,' the fellow who comes up to you with all his troubles, the fellow who knows about all bad news months ahead and whispers it into your left ear. He is present everywhere. You'll meet him in the reading room in the hall, just as you have made up your mind to have a nice quiet read. He enters, you spy him in the distance, through the extreme corner of one eye, and you look more intently on what you are reading, hoping to avoid him; you haul yourself into your inside garments, as it were, in the hope that you may conceal yourself. But, lo! like the Assyrian of old, he comes sneaking in to unfold his troubles. He is usually one of those harmless kind of individuals, who you don't feel like calling to go to the Coronation, and you make up your mind that another night is gone wrong and you go home more fatigued than if you were engaged all day in that paying industry known on hot days as beach rock picking. This pest is bad enough but like the flea, he has one redeeming quality, and that is he awaits the night time to attack you. His first-cousin the 'Linker,' piles on the agony when the sun is high in the sky. The worst feature about the 'Linker' is that he is on the increase. Heretofore, only one or two of the species infested the market, but now that number has grown and is growing to an alarming extent."
"When a man links me," says the Cute Man, "he makes me feel as if I were becoming a 'softie,' and I can see visions of myself begging a 'chew' in the region of the Poor House some day in the near future. 'Tis not by any means a comfortable position to be in for it makes you half ashamed to meet your friends. The 'Linker,' too, has a step to suit the link, and to get along easily you have to keep in step with him. The gait is slower than that of a funeral, and the 'Linker' has a tormenting knock of thrusting you around and looking in your face at the end of each paragraph in his conversation."
Lots of good men have given up the ghost and got buried rather than put up with another summer's linking. All through the winter they watched the 'Linker' and gave shy glances to see if he struck a good square cold that might induce the shivers and help him on to his reward. But although scantily togged and notwithstanding that he gave up wearing rubbers in January, and the Marconi man sent tons of colds and bushels of snow to melt his face and wet his stockings, no cold did he take, and to-day he is as spry as a tomfox.
"And, now," said the Cute Man, spring has arrived and old women are out in back yards looking for trouble, while the 'Linker' glides his usual glide and has already juggled the Premier, for I beheld him in the distance with Sir Edward in tow. This is the grand spring opening and many the shoulder will twist 'neath the jiggly twist of the enthusiastic 'Linker' ere the robins go south again.
TIM SHANNAHAN.

Insane Woman Escapes

Yesterday a poor woman, a resident of Casey's Street, who had been in the Asylum before, again became demented and her husband left her in the care of two women, neighbours, while he went to get a cab to bring her to the Asylum. While gone the woman broke through all restraint, escaped from the house and the police were compelled to look her up. She ran from her home to a residence on Barter's Hill where she frightened the inmates of a house and hid in a room. After a long search Constable Lee located the woman and drove her to the lunatic Asylum.

Fiona at Placentia.

The cruiser Fiona, Capt. E. English, arrived at Placentia yesterday after doing several weeks fishery protection service on the S. W. Coast. She reports fine weather the past week on the coast and that fishermen did fairly well. She reports herring plentiful in Fortune Bay and that several bankers have returned from Quero Bank, some fairly fished and others poorly, some were damaged and lost considerable gear in the storms of the 12th and 13th.
