Cable News.

Special to Evening Telegram.
HALIFAX, Feb. 19.
The Provincial Parliament opened to-day.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Feb. 19.
Mrs. Stevenson, widow of the famous novelist, Robert Louis Stevenson, is dead.

LONDON, Feb. 19.
Lord Lansdowne, in the Lords to-day, moved for the appointment of a committee, including a couple of law lords, to enquire if Lord Murray obtained all the Marconi shares he applied for, and who was the actual owner of the large block of shares acquired by the Cabinet Ministers. The Marquis of Crewe offered no objection, and the motion carried without division.

LONDON, Feb. 19.
The Marquis of Salisbury, addressing the Herefordshire Chamber of Commerce, declared that if the landowners were deprived of their existing authority and power, they will spend no more money on land, but will sell out and quit. Extra burdens now being thrown on land were denounced by Lord Salisbury, as intensifying the evils of the old system. The adoption of what reformers call "strictly fair rents" would, he said, increase present rates in some cases four-fold.

NORFOLK, Va., Feb. 19.
Wireless calls have been sweeping over the sea from all radio towers on the middle Atlantic coast, while revenue cutters and numbers of steamers have to-day been searching in vain for the five-masted schooner Kineo, of Bath, Maine. She was reported yesterday as making 12 inches of water in an hour, and in a disabled condition. The schooner with a crew of eleven has been in bad for some time. Last month she had been blown away, and put into port for safety. When she was sighted by the steamer, City of Atlanta, yesterday, it did not seem necessary for the liner to take off the crew. The revenue cutter, Onondaga, began the search for the Kineo, then 160 miles north of the West Diamond Shoals. The wife and two-year-old child of Capt. Farrell, the commander of the Kineo are with him aboard.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.
President Wilson has pressed further for repeal of the Exemption Clause of the Panama Canal Act. In a conference with Senator Kern, the majority leader, who said in the afternoon that the Senate first would dispose of the arbitration and probably take up the tolls question immediately after. He thought that probably the Senate would act on repeal before the House would. Although Kern had voted for exemption, he said to-day the President had told him of various international phases of the question, which were not before the Senate when the Canal Act was passed. He added he was not prepared to announce his position. Representative Underwood, it is understood, while still believing in the tolls exemption clause, will not organize any opposition to the President in the House. Representative Palmer, Chairman of the Democratic caucus, said to-day when he voted against exemption he would vote actively for repeal.
