HOW THINGS LOOK FOR MR. WILLS NOW.

New York, Nov. 8.—"Set the rest of them up and we will knock 'em over," Paddy Mullins, the squat, dumpy manager of Harry Wills, said to-day.

As stunt No. 2 in his belated campaign to force Jack Dempsey to accept his challenge, Wills knocked off Jack Thompson, one of the leading seventh raters over in Newark last night.

Thompson became what is known as a "technical" victim when his seconds tossed in the towel five seconds before the end of the fourth round.

"I suppose those who have been trying to keep Wills away from Dempsey will say that Harry looked bad and Thompson was only a ham," Mullins added.

They are saying that very thing. The most flattering thing said about the colored challenger after he had landed on Thompson at least a hundred times without getting one back was that Wills didn't have brittle hands.

It had been reported that his "dukes" were in bad shape.

"They didn't say anything about Firpo, when he was knocking over him," Mullins continued.

Firpo was paniced, however, for feasting in set-ups, but he was deaf and he got a bout with Dempsey and a pile of dough.

The pile of dough for the loser's end of a fight with Dempsey probably is more of a lure for the present crop of contenders than the "little itself."

It has been suggested that Wills only wants the big loser's end of a championship fight and circumstantial evidence to be found in the retirement of Wills for a year from the ring makes it look at least plausible.

Leo Flynn, manager of Jack Renault, announced after Renault had knocked out Floyd Johnson that he was going to send the Canadian after Wills, Gibbons and Firpo.

Flynn wanted witnesses yesterday to go along with him and see him throw Renault's gloves at the feet of Wills.

Renault, according to Flynn, is going to keep in shape during the rest of the winter by hunting big game and set-ups, and in the spring he is going

CANADIAN HEAVYWEIGHT MAY BE MATCHED WITH BILLY MISKE, OF ST. PAUL, IN THE SPRING.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Prospects of a match between Jack Renault and Harry Wills in the near future at out-victors over Floyd Johnson, seeking it as a charity affair to be held around Christmas time. The Canadian heavyweights, however, turned down Renault's offer, asking for more time before opposing the "Brown Panther," while Wills also displayed no eagerness for the match.

A contest between Renault and Wills, who knocked out Billy Johnson a few days ago at Omaha, is in prospect.
