PRESENTATION TO MR. AND MRS. ARMSTRONG

From the Kenora Miner and News

Mr. H. E. Armstrong, manager of the Royal Bank, was tendered a dinner last night at the Y.M.C.A., at which about twenty of the leading members of the Y. and business men sat down, presided over by Mr. G. M. Ritch, with guest of the evening to his right. On account of the "flu" conditions, the number present had been limited, but it was felt that some informal recognition should be made of Mr. Armstrong's services to the community before his departure for Aylmer, where he has been appointed manager of the Royal at that point. At the conclusion of the dinner, Mr. Armstrong was presented with a "shaving companion" and complimentary addresses were made by Rev. W. J. MacQuarrie, Rev. R. Nairn, D. G. Roy, A. F. Gooding, W. Greenwood, A. McMeekin and others. Mr. Armstrong replied expressing appreciation of their kindly remembrance and expressing the regret he and Mrs. Armstrong felt at leaving Kenora after nearly 14 years residence. He realized its many charms as a place of residence and would always remember the pleasant associations he had formed here.

This morning on behalf of the members of the Union Church Sunday school, Mrs. Armstrong was presented with a silver flower basket, and Mr. Armstrong with a set of military brushes in recognition of their faithful services to the school. On account of the "flu" there was no formal gathering, the presentations being made by Messrs. A. McMeekin and McMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong and family will leave tonight for their new home in Aylmer.

SPECIAL TO THE GLOBE INDIGENT FARMER

The Following Letter from Nova Scotia Street Farmer Resents Hard Cider Accusations Against Elgin Farmers.

To the Editor of the Express:

Farmers in this district are highly incensed over a "special" from St. Thomas to the Globe last Thursday, asserting that Elgin County farmers were laying in large supplies of hard cider to defraud the residents of this county by selling it to "make small fortunes" for themselves. County Magistrate Hunt is given as authority for this libel on the hard worked farmers, who have striven so hard to conserve all farm products during the war, and when there was no sale for apples this season, with hundreds of bushels rotting on the ground, farmers made as many as possible into cider, and are storing it for vinegar. Since the apple crop for the past three years has been a failure cider vinegar has been at a premium. Squire Hunt asserts he has his information "from a reliable source." Will the gentleman kindly give his authority? A man who resides in Port Burwell was fined recently for selling hard cider, by Squire Hunt. This man never owned a farm in his life. He has two members in his family in prison for theft, and as Squire Hunt sent them there, he knows the record of the family, so evidently this man cannot be any "farmer" alluded to by him. No one has any knowledge in this part of the county of the conditions complained of in this accusation of the law-abiding farmers who all did work "tooth and nail for prohibition" though why his Worship seems so indignant over the fact, does not appear.

One Pathephone sells another. Call and learn why. Sold by John Low & Co., Aylmer.

Indignant Farmer.
