The Situation Is Puzzling

But British Interests in China Will Be Maintained.

Mr. Brodrick Tells What the Government Will and Will Not Do in the Far East—Conflicting Rumors of a Great Boxer Defeat—Massacre in Shen Si.

London, Thursday, Aug. 30—3:15 a.m.

—Amid the growing difficulties of the Chinese embargo, Mr. Brodrick's emphatic declaration at Thorncombe last evening proves that the British government does not yet see any cause to depart from the line of policy originally decided upon, namely, to take no responsibility for the administration of China. Mr. Brodrick said he hoped it would not be supposed that the government was pusillanimous in this respect. Its object was to MAINTAIN BRITISH INTERESTS. It was quite ready to take its share of the "white man's burden," but could not admit that the nature of that burden should be dictated to it by the yellow man.

"Here," the Morning Post observes, "is where the difficulty of selecting a policy comes in. We cannot decamp and leave the powers to settle the matter between themselves."

Mr. Brodrick said the situation in China was considerably involved, because there was

NO CHINESE GOVERNMENT with which to negotiate. "Great Britain," continued the under secretary, "while prepared to support the loyal viceroys of South China, who stood aloof from this insurrection, and while prepared also to preserve British trade with China, will claim some penalty or indemnity for the damage wrought. Nevertheless, we cannot undertake to govern China ourselves nor with the assistance of other powers."

PEACE-MAKERS WANTED. The Chinese minister in London asserts that he is in constant communication with Li Hung Chang, who is still in Shanghai. Dispatches received this morning bring no later Pekin news. A Shanghai telegram says that Li Hung Chang has sent a memorial, begging the emperor dowager to appoint Prince Ching, Gen. Yung Lu and the Yang Tse viceroys as joint peace-makers with himself.

THE IMPERIAL HOUSEHOLD. A Shanghai correspondent of the Times says that a native official telegram from Pao Ting Fu announces the arrival of the court last Sunday at Tau Yuen Fu.

A BOXER DEFEAT. There are conflicting rumors of a great battle, in which 1,500 Boxers and Prince Tuan were killed.

REFORMERS BEHEADED. The reform party under Kang Yu Wei is said to be actively preparing for rebellion. Gen. Greagh, in the presence of Vice-Admiral Seymour, reviewed 8,000 troops of all nationalities at Shanghai Wednesday.

It is reported from Hankow that 25 reformers have been executed, their heads being exposed.

The Taku correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, writing Aug. 28, says that the country around Taku and Pekin is devastated by the peasantry. The Boxers, who were moving north, from Shan Tung, are now returning hastily to their homes.

TERRIBLE CONDITIONS IN PEKIN. Belated dispatches and the stories of refugees arriving at Che Foo continue to describe the terrible conditions in Pekin. One of the worst incidents was the shocking desecration of the foreign cemetery outside the west wall. The details are too revolting to be described. Hundreds of bodies of Chinese are found in the streets, of Pekin, supposed to be those of traitors to the cause of the Boxers.

Communication between Pekin and Tien Tsin is interrupted, probably because bands of Boxers made the road unsafe for couriers. The country north of Yang Tung is said to be flooded.

The railroad from Tien Tsin to Yang Tsun is working, but from the latter place to Pekin the road is in bad shape. The commander of the German gunboat reports that communication with Pekin is still exposed to temporary interruption.
