

Both Had Eczema

In Its Worst Form After Physicians Failed, Hood's Sarsaparilla Perfectly Cured.

Great mental agony is endured by parents who see their children suffering from diseases caused by impure blood, and for which there seems no cure. This is turned to joy when Hood's Sarsaparilla is resorted to, for it expels the foul humors from the blood, and restores the diseased skin to fresh, healthy brightness. Read the following from grateful parents:

"To C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:
"We think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most valuable medicine on the market for blood and skin diseases. Our two children suffered terri-bly with the Worst Form of Eczema for two years. We had three physicians in that time, but neither of them succeeded in curing them or even in giving then a little relief. At last we fried Hood's Barsaparilla and in a mouth of the cetty curred. We recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla as a standard family medicine, and would not be without it." MR. and MRS. M. M. SOLLER, 1412 2nd Avenue, Altoona, Pa.

Missionary Addresses in Victoria Hall by Rev. Frank Newton, Hon. Miss Sugden, and Rev. Canon Dumoulin-Urgent Pleas for Sympathy in the Urgent Pleas for Sympathy in the Work.

The general missionary meeting under the auspices of the W. A. M. A. of Huron Diocese, was held last evening in Victoria Hall, which was crowded to the doors. On the platform were Bishop Baldwin, Dean Innes, Canons Davis, Richardson, Newman (Toronto), Rev. Messrs. Softley, Newton (Strathroy), W. T. Hill and Sage.

Bishop Baldwin, who officiated as chairman, stated, after devotional exercises, that this was always the most largely attended of all the meetings of women's missions. He added that the programme provided was such as would amply repay his hearers for their presence.

Rev. Frank Newton, of Strathroy, was the first speaker. He referred to the noble efforts of the missionaries—solf-sacrificing men and women—who left their homes for foreign lands for the uplifting and saving of the heathen. Referring to the so-called misrepresentation of funds, the speaker showed that every dollar was properly spent in the grand work—that it cost from 5 to 7½ cents on the dollar to collect manage and forward. God is blessing the work of missions in India, China, Africa and the isles of the sea, and in response to the Saviour's command, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature," we must either go ourselves or send.

Hon, Miss Sugden then addressed the creature," we must either go ourselves or send.

Hon. Miss Sugden then addressed the assemblage, referring to the work of the missionaries in India. Vivid scenes of the awful life of woman in that country were given, as well as the wretchedness of child widowhood. There, daughters are cursed by fathers. The speaker's experience was, however, that the unhappy women of that far-off land were ready to hear the gospel; their faces light up when they hear of Christ. On one cocasion fifteen Brahmin priests called on her to learn of Christ and his kingdom, and they remarked that her words must be true because told so gently and kindly by a woman. The Christian population there is rapidly increasing, yet only one woman in 800 is being educated. Christian baptism, she said, was death to a Hindoe. Husbands would rather see their wives and daughters dead than confess Christ. Light was dawning, however.

Miss Ematinger sang a hymn in an effective manner.

Canon Dumoulin, of St. James' Cathedral, Toronto, remarked that when hearing Miss Sugden's address; he thought the world, after all, was a small place. Many years ago, in Dublin, he remembered hearing Sir Edward Sugden—afterward Lord St. Leonard, Lord Chancellor of Ireland—and to-night he had the great pleasure of listening to words from his daughter. (Applause.) It afforded the speaker much gratification in the announcement that our young women are as bright in their matriculation as young men—in fact, said he, some members of the New York bar are women. Some of the best reporters in America are women, while many important clerkiships are as ably filled by them as by men. But in social life women are the great leaders. The church often engages in work of doubt, but no possible doubt can exist in the most blessed work of missions. Christ did not leave the world until the message had been given—"Go ye into all the world." He urged his hearers never to lose confidence in the missionary cause, but ever to have patience, as in God's good time the light was taken up in conclusion.

The Board of Education of 1892 held its final session last evening. Mr. J. S. Dewar, chairman, spoke at some length on the business of the year, "An effort was made by the board" he said, "during the summer, and by many prominent chizens, to secure the establishment of a western wormal school in London. An influential deputation visited Toronto for that purpose, and had an interview with the members of the year. The annual report of the directors was read by the secretary. The year had not been altogether a profitable year for the farmers. Horses and wheat were both plentiful, but very cheap. Grains, other than wheat, were a fair average crop and sold at a fair price. Pork and cheese brought good prices. At the Western Fair the exhibits in grain and roots were not as numerous as they should have been. The exhibits in horses, sheep and pigs were enormous.

He said their success in the south riding of Oxford was due to their perfect organization, and they should not relax their vijilance. He thought the purpose of the Toronto convention was to state their future policy and arrange bester organization. Their prospects were very cheering for the party at the next federal elections. He referred to the great turn-over wave at the recent political election in the United States, and was sure that the next election would give a much larger majority than the purchased majority of the Tories.

The following resolution was unanimously carried: "That we, the members of the Reform Association of South Oxford, place on record our unbounded confidence in the Hon. Wilfrid Laurier and our loyal Opposition at Ottawa; and we further express our confidence in or member, Sir R. J. Cartwright, for the good work he has done in that direction.
