Dr. Cameron (Inverness) introduced the delegation and addresses were given by Wood (Westmoreland), Grandbois, Tisdale, McKay, Mara and McKean. The speakers represented that two-thirds of the coal in the Province would be controlled by the syndicate, and asked that the Governor-in-council should arge upon the Nova Scotia Legislature the necessity of previding for bona-fide and effectual working of the coal mines and to prevent extortion without in any way interfering with the collection of revenues to the Province from royalties and without endangering the security of foreign investors from their large undertaking. They insisted that the company should give evidence of its good feith by keeping open the mines continuously.

Sir John Thompson, in reply, said he was very doubtful if the Dominion Government had any right to interfere, as the Province has perfect control over its own coal. A Swell Elopement.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 16.—Boston's swell club, the Algonquin, is minus its secretary, W. W. Gooch, who has run away. Carrie Herrick, the daughter of Frederick W. Herrick, the daughter of Frederick W. Herrick, the millionaire wine merchant, is also missing. It is said they have cloped. Gooch owns considerable real estate in Georgia, and he has probably gone there.

The Topeka Trouble.

Topeka, Kaus., Feb. 16.—Every train which has arrived here during the past 12 hours brought its complement of troops, and Republican and Populist volunteers armed with Winchesters, shotguns and revolvers, anxious to take a hand in the fight which is anticipated for to-day. The capitol on all tides is surrounded with soldiers and citizens, and at every approach to the building a picket line is maintained. No one is allowed in unless by pass signed by the Governor and countersigned by the adjutant-general. Battery "A," First Regiment, guards the principal approach. They have with them of Getling guns and a polential sumply of the presented with a picket line is maintained. No one is allowed.

Battery "A," First Regiment, guards the presented with a picket line until they came to the last. "Hansom," he said, appealing to her directly.

She looked again at her husband and then at the cabby. "Goorne he is," she replied, and clutching his arm convulsively she exclaimed in the saby, and exclaimed in the same of his arm convulsively she exclaimed in the sale and every? Mr. McNeil (North Bruce)—Supposing a foreign syndicate were to obtain centrol of these coal immes in order to stifle competition, would it interfere?

The Premier said he had taken that into consideration. He could not give any promise that the law would be disallowed.

The probability was that the bargain will stand.

DEADLY COAL DUST.

Explosion in an Iowa Mine—One Man Killed and Sixtern Badly Eurned.
OTTUMA, Iowa, Feb. 15.—An explosion occurred to-day at the Cedar mines near Albia. Joseph Gallagher was torn to pleces and sixteen others were taken out unconscious. The men taken out unconscious. The men taken out unconscious were badly burned about the dead and hands, but their injuries will not result fatuly. The explosion was caused by coal dust igniting from a shot. One hundred men were in the mines at the time but they were all near the pare air shalt and thus escaped serious injury.

Not long since a bride and groom from the State of Michigan were visiting Washington, D. C., as is the custom of young people in the honeymoonatic condition. Just where they came from cannot be stated, as a Saginaw man residing at the national capital says they were from Bay City, and a Bay City man in one of the departments says they were from Eay City, and a Bay City man in one of the departments says they were from Eay City, and a Bay City man in one of the departments says they were from Eay City, and a Bay City and it has a could be a busined as a policy of the tought they were in Washington, and the young bride thought her husband was the lovellest man that ever did liver and as a cobody told her he wasn't, he must have been. One night they went to the theater within two blocks of their hotel, and as she clung fondly to him and gazed up into his good-looking face as they came out, the cabington and the young bride thought they were in Washington, and the young bride thought her husband was the lovellest man th
