Hogtown has at last been obliterated from the junior O. R. F. U. football map. The Toronto Caps sure got theirs in bunches. The bunches signify MUD, which, next to the end runs of the London team, the bucking of Bill Duffield, and the fine work of Art Smith, was the most prominent feature of the pastime.

That London has one of the best scoring machines in junior football was amply demonstrated yesterday afternoon at Tecumseh Park. The running of Art Smith and Gus Edwards was worth going a long way to see, while the bucks of Bill Duffield were the finest ever pulled off on a local field. WILL SET LOWER PRICES

Announcement Made by Ban Johnson Following Letter From August Herrmann

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.-The baseball series for the championship of the world will consist of eleven games instead of seven next year and prices will be lower, according to B. B. Johnson, president of the American League when he made public tonight a letter he had received from August Herrmann, chairman of the National Baseball Commis world series was considered at a recent meeting of the American League here and after a tentative agreement was reached. Johnson submitted the proposal to National League club own-

Herrmann's letter said the National League owners had agreed to the change and that a plan would be worked out and adopted at the annual meeting in January. Some of the club owners, he said, had objected to cutting the prices on the grounds that it would decrease the amount given to the players. According to proposed change, the players will share in the first five instead of four games so their total will not be decreased.

HERRMANN DENIES IT. CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 25.—Chair man August Herrmann of the Nationa Baseball Commission, denied emphatically here tonight that he had ever written to President Ban B. Johnso of the American League, advocating were smothered that the number of games in the world's series be changed from seven to eleven and the prices reduced. "I certainly wrote no such letter, said Herrmann. "As far as I know the matter has not even been considered by the National League club owners.
