MAY REINFORCE OTTAWA CABINET

Rumor that Mr. A. G. Mackay, Leader of Opposition in Ontario Legislature, Will Become Dominion Minister.

TORONTO, May 25.—The question that is being discussed in political circles just now in Toronto, is the probable elevation of A. G. Mackay, leader of the opposition in the Ontario legislature, to a position in the Ottawa cabinet. It is pointed out that the hon. gentleman has been in Ottawa several times lately and has held long conferences with Sir Wilfrid and his ministers.

Before he started on his tour of the province, after the close of the provincial legislature, he consulted the federal leaders, and his tour is being made in the defense of reciprocity, not provincial issues.

It is pointed out that Mr. Mackay is the next man from Ontario for the federal cabinet, gains ground.

PROVINCIAL NEWS

Judgment has been reserved by Mr.
Justice Murphy in the sensational Hume hotel case at Nelson.

A monster grizzly weighing upwards of 700 pounds has been shot near Hosmer by J. Allen and J. Mills.
James Watson, a pioneer resident of Nanaimo, is dead at his home in that city.

D. H. Evans has been acquitted by a jury at the Vancouver assizes of the charge of theft with violence.

The Grady sawmill at Duck creek is to reopen under new proprietorship, employing sixty men.

A syndicate has been formed to acquire and colonize 4,000 acres of lands in the famous Tobacco Plains.

The earnings of the B. C. Copper Co. for April amounted to $31,900, or $100,176 for the first four months of providing for the installation of a modern sewerage system.

Revelstoke is faced by two heavy damage actions, the one for $10,000 and the other for $17,000.

A. M. McCullough of Nelson has been engaged to report on the waterways necessities of Kaslo.

All indications point to the present season being a record-breaker in the fruit production of the Kootenai district.
The year.

Fire is burning in No. 8 mine at Mabel and the mine has been sealed by order of Chief Inspector Shepherd.

Frank Florence has been convicted at the New Westminster assizes of outing one John Smith, with intent to kill and murder. Sentence is reserved.

James McDonnell is dead at Hazelton, from the effect of a dose of carbolic acid, taken with suicidal intent.

T. G. Wynn, formerly of Prince Rupert, has arrived at Hazelton to assume charge of the police district with headquarters there.

As a result of an accident at No. 5 mine, Cumberland, a young man named Williamson is fatally injured.

Kaslo has sent a deputation to Montreal to confer with Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, urging either that the C. P. R. acquire and operate the Kaslo & Slocan, or else forego construction of its three forks—Bear Lake Spur, which would take business from the line which a Kaslo syndicate purposes to re-establish and operate.

Two young men of North Vancouver captured a veritable tartar a few days ago when, ostensibly "just for fun," they attempted to "hold up" a Japanese family. The wife and mother promptly secured a rifle and took the jokers prisoners. One was subsequently convicted and sentenced to one month's imprisonment, while the other was dismissed for lack of direct evidence.

George Black, an Armstrong Indian, shot a doctor named Mary Anne last Thursday, with an automatic pistol. He then turned the weapon upon himself and sent a shot through his head. Both are still living, but will probably die.

In its presentment to Mr. Justice Clement at the New Westminster as-sises, the grand jury has expressed deep regret that owing to inadequacy of jail accommodations, youthful prisoners are too often forced to associate with hardened offenders. Fire precautions at moving picture shows were recommended, as well as improved sanitation at such places of resort.

Curley Allen has been taken to Nelson jail from Fernie, to serve a two months' sentence for "rolling" a lum-berjack. Strange to tell, the robbery was accomplished in a cell at the Fernie jail, where Allen and the inferior one were fellow prisoners.

The police had searched the man of the woods when he was brought in, but failed to find his wealth. After he had been placed in a cell with Allen, the latter was more successful.

At Vancouver on Monday last County Judge McInnes decided that, owing to the manner in which the information had been laid, he had no jurisdiction to decide the case of McVey vs. the C. P. R. company. McVey is suing for a month's wages in lieu of proper notice of dismissal. Acting on the recommendation of a recent consultation board he refused to shift cargo on the Princess Victoria on a Sunday unless paid overtime. The captain dismissed him, with a number of others, and action was brought. The case will be brought up under the Imperial Shipping Act as the Judge holds that the Canada Shipping Act does not apply.

ASKED TO EXPLAIN

WASHINGTON, May 25.—John H.
Allen and Whidden Graham, of the firm of Allen and Graham, New York, were summoned today by the senate finance committee to appear next Monday to produce the literature which they had issued in opposition to the Canadian reciprocity bill and to substantiate the claim made in their behalf by the National Grange that their activities were made in the capacity of lawyers for the farmers.

The inquiry also was arranged for the purpose of ascertaining whether the members of this firm had been engaged to "manufacture opposition" to the Canadian bill.

"This firm's members are not ill-censed or practicing lawyers," Senator Stone said, "but are what, to put it mildly, are called 'promoters,' such as are frequently employed to push along certain matters of legislation. They are not attorneys in the sense that I understand Mr. Hull to mean."

Senator Gallinger, whose frank, it is said, was used by Allen and Graham to send out signs of the reciprocity matter to grangers, said that people had a right to object to the bill, and he himself had sent a number of letters opposing it. He asked that N. J.
Bachelder, president of the National Grange, be informed of the committee's action, as he might wish to attend the hearing on Monday. He read a telegram, wherein Mr. Bachelder said that Allen and Graham had been acting for the legislative committee of the grange in the work they had done.

Strawberry Vale Methodist church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon last, when Miss Helen M. Hughes, late of Middleboro, Eng., was married to Rev. Thos.
Keyworth, formerly pastor of the Strawberry Vale church, and recently appointed to the pastorate of the Methodist church at Esquimalt. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion by the young people of the church where the groom had spent a very popular pastorate of two years. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. Sippell, D.D., of Columbian college, assisted by Rev. Geo. S. Hunt, and Rev.
J. A. Wood. The bride was attended by Miss Ida Lehman and Miss Annie Jones, as bridesmaids, and was given away by Mr. D. Lehman. Rev. E. C.
Pakeley, an old college friend, supported the groom. The ceremony was immediately preceded by the rendering of "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden," by the choir of the church, and then followed the simple ritualistic service of the Methodist church. At the conclusion of the service a reception and wedding supper was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Lehman. A large number of beautiful wedding presents were received by the young couple both from friends in the homeland and in the province where their life work is to lie. A brief honeymoon will be spent among the Gulf islands, after which Mr. and Mrs. Keyworth will proceed to their work at Esquimalt.

The new public library at Fort George is open to the public.

COUNCIL PLAN NOT APPROVED

Sir Joseph Ward's Proposal for Imperial-Legislative Body is Discussed in Imperial Conference.

LONDON, May 25.—At today's session of the Imperial Conference, a message of thanks was read from the King for the loyal assurances conveyed at the first meeting of the conference.

Premier Ward then resumed his speech on the question of an imperial council. He became more urgent and emphatic when he affirmed that he remembered that at least two of the greatest of the dominions had already embarked upon a naval policy of their own. Such action, Sir Joseph declared, emphasized the need for some imperial council, accredited to co-ordinate and harmonize the policy of naval defence.

For the defence of the empire was above all other questions one in which every part of the empire was vitally interested, and which could be treated satisfactorily only by means of a properly constituted council, state or parliament. At the present time the different parts of the empire had no voice whatever in questions concerning peace or war. The question of an imperial council of defence was even more important to the United Kingdom than the dominions in view of the burden imposed upon her for naval expenditure of the protection of British ships, peoples and goods on land and sea. The local naval provision of Canada and Australia, however good it might be in so far as the local portion of the dominions was concerned, was inadequate. What was wanted was a uniformity of the system for the preservation of the whole imperial overseas.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier pointed out that the resolution favoring the creation of a council to act as a check to the imperial authorities, but the arguments of Premier Ward were in favor of something very different. What Sir Joseph proposed was not an advisory council but a legislative body carrying out the policy of the United Kingdom and the dominions, with power to create expenditure but with no responsibility for providing the necessary revenue to meet that expenditure. If such a system was responsible for the carrying out of the imperial defence plans, the legislative body in question might say that five, ten, or twenty million pounds were necessary, so much for each of the different portions of the empire. Then the respective governments would be simply dumb agents carrying out the decision and would simply have to provide the money asked for.

Such a proposal was absolutely impracticable.

Premier Fisher also agreed as to the impracticability of the proposal.

Premier Asquith, who followed, said the scheme would impair, if not altogether destroy the authority of the government of the United Kingdom in such grave matters as the continuance of a foreign policy, the conclusion of treaties, the declaration of peace or war.
As the whole of the representatives present were against it, Sir Joseph Ward withdrew his resolution.

PREPARING DEFENCE

Clarence Darrow Working on Case of Two Alleged Dynamiters at Los Angeles.

LOS ANGELES, May 25.—Clarence Darrow, of Chicago, who is to lead the defense for the McNamara brothers, the alleged Times dynamite plotters, arrived today and at once plunged into the work of mastering the principal details of the case. A large office force has been organized by the labor leaders to handle the great volume of detail involved in preparation for the trial. From the train Mr. Darrow was taken in an automobile directly to the jail. There he talked for more than an hour with John J. McNamara, secretary of the International Bridge and Structural Iron Workers' association, charged with having been the directing head of the alleged dynamite conspiracy, and then conferred with J. B. McNamara, accused of placing the bomb which destroyed the newspaper plant.

After these conferences Mr. Darrow went to the headquarters of the defense committee and had a talk with attorney Job Harrison, who has had charge of the cases since the departure of Attorney Leo Rappaport, chief counsel of the Iron Workers' association. Mr. Darrow declined to discuss a suggested change of venue, saying that although it has been his experience that in cases involving labor questions fairer trials could be obtained in a city than in a country court, the question had yet to be decided in the present case.

The grand jury continued today its investigation of the alleged attempt to blow up the county hall of records.
When it adjourned late today there remained several witnesses to be questioned.

Ballot Boxes Ordered.

TORONTO, May 27.—The Mail and Empire said this morning: "Another indication of the imminence of a federal general election was furnished by a report current today that J. G. Foley, the clerk of the crown in chancery, had come to Toronto and placed a rush order for several thousand ballot boxes with a local firm. Mr. Foley explained his visit by saying that at each general election trouble had been experienced in obtaining the use of sufficient ballot boxes."

William McGregor, upon conviction of having robbed and brutally assaulted an old man named Robert Graham, has been sentenced to two years' imprisonment by Magistrate Shaw of Vancouver.
