THE BOY'S CHANT

By George A. Forden

Geel! Th' Christmas dinner
Is a winner!
With th' turkey gettin' thinner
Till there's just th' bones an' neck
Like a wreck
Standin' lonesome on th' platter,
An' you feel yourself get 'tatter
When they pass th' sweet potatoes,
An' th' stewed corn an' tomatoes,
An' th' cloves-stuck-in-it ham,
An' th' jam,
An' th' celery an' pickles,
An' th' cider with th' tickles
When you swallow.
Wah! you're hollow.
I can completely to your feet
So's at you could eat an' eat!
Yy! Th' dandy Christmas dinner
Is th' best, or I'm a sinner!
Say, there ain't a better time
Than th' tinkle of your spoon
Or your knife an' fork a-clinkin'
On your plate! That's what I'm thinkin'!

An' th' punkin pie, and puddin'—
Why, a fellow would be wooden
If he didn't eat it all
An' then call
For another piece o' cake,
Who's afraid o' stomach-ache?
Christmas comes but once a year;
Mustn't spoil it while it's here!
When we've et th' table bare,
Geel! My clothes is hard to wear,
An' th' folks say: "Bless his heart—
He has done a grown man's part!"
Wah! they'd bless my stomach, too,
Thut'd help when we get through,
'Cause my heart can get along
An' keep beatin' good an' strong;
But my stomach! Oh, gee whizz!
Guess that's where my conscience is!
Hope there's some left for to-night
When I'll have more appetite
All right!

Huh! My Uncle John, w'y, he Sees I lack capacity!
Is a winner!
Geel! Th' Christmas dinner

GUESTS AT YULE

Clarence

Noel! Noel!
Thus sounds each Christmas bell
Across the winter snow.
But what are the little footprints all
That mark the path from the churchyard wall?

They are those of the children waked
tonight
From sleep by the Christmas bells
and light:
Ring sweetly, chimel! Soft, soft,
my rhymes!
Their beds are under the snow.

Noel! Noel!
Carols each Christmas bell.
What are the waifs of mist
That gather near the window-pane
Where the winter frost all day has lain?

They are soulless elves, who fain
would peer
Within, and laugh at our Christmas
cheer:
Ring fleetly, chimel! Swift, swift,
my rhymes!
They are made of the mocking
mist.

Noel! Noel!
Cease, cease, each Christmas bell!
Under the holly bough,
Where the happy children throng and
shout,
What shadow seems to flit about?

Is it the mother, then, who died
Ere the greens were set last Christmas-tide?
Hush, falling chimel! Cease, cease,
my rhymes!

The guests are gathered now.

The Swaffer's Question.

If you've rocked the baby an hour

or two

Fill at last she has fallen asleep,

And you slip away on tip-toe because

With that one little swaffer

Exercise this summer

Well neither suit nor yacht:

For fear she'll wake up add

Woe.

And a mischievous old Gr. comes bounding

Along

And lights on the poor baby's nose,

It's time then to awat, or is it not

The best time to awat? Goodness
