Benewed Bioting -- The Minister of Public-Instruction Resigns. LONDON, Die, 25.--A despatch 'from 'St. Petersburg says that the University students there, being irritated by the action of the authorities in confining them to the university building, renewed the floting. The students deny that they are actuated by political molives. They say that their aim is to secure the dismissel of the rector, the aboli-tion of the new university statutes and the re-lease of the students who were arrested during the recent trials. Prof. Mendelgieff promised to impartially report the affair to the corrator, whereupon the prefect opened the door and the students dispersed quiety.
