Death of Miss Lillian Fowler

(Toronto Star, April 6th) Following an operation for appendicitis, Miss Lillian Fowler died in Lynd-hurst Hospital. Miss Fowler was one of the best-known church soloists in the city, and the news of her death was received with regret by a host of friends in the musical world of the city.

The deceased was born in Watford 28 years ago, and came to Toronto about five years ago, where she soon became identified as soloist in the Broadway Tabernacle, and later in the Metropolitan church. Her illness became acute 6 weeks ago, and she was removed from her residence in the Maitland Apartments to the Lyndhurst Hospital. Her condition became gradually worse, and she died yesterday.

She is survived by two sisters—Miss Maud Fowler, London, and Mrs. Cross, Lansing, Mich.—and one brother—Clarence of Winnipeg.

Miss Fowler was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fowler, of Watford. The funeral was held on Tuesday, at London.

THE best goods on earth are offered to us. We have the pick of them all for an army of travelling men visit this store every year selling pretty near everything in hardware.

We are your "purchasing agents"— ever think of that? Many tell us they get the best values here in everything they buy. It's because we have to know values, and we pick out the best goods there are on the market for the money.

For example—lawn mowers.
There are several hundred makes on the market but we never did a better stroke of business than when we took the handling of these Mowers.
We personally guarantee them for one year. All styles and sizes. Don't buy just a lawn mower, but lawn mower service. There's years of service in every machine we sell.
