GRADE XII DEFEATED
GRADE IX IN H. S. LEAGUE

Another game of the Bridgetown high school League was pulled off Saturday morning when Grade XI defeated Grade IX by the score of 3-1, though the fee was not as good as could be desired, the teams put up fine game.

Grade X was a little slower in the first period than their opponents and took through, putting two goals by late in quite quick succession. In the second period Grade X scored their only goal and Grade XI landed another.

The third period was the best and brightest part of the game, and though number of rushes were begun by the teams, they were promptly checked before the players came within range of the nets.

The lineup was as follows:
Grade XI: Chute, Goal; O. Rumsey, Defence; O. Armstrong, Forward; H. Mack, Forward; A. Price, Forward; E. Orlando, Forward; Mack, Forward.

Grade XII: Clute, Goal; O. Rumsey, Defence; O. Armstrong, Forward; H. Mack, Forward; A. Price, Forward; E. Orlando, Forward; Mack, Forward.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL NOTES

Good Work of Ladies And Of Methodist Church.—Additional Books For Library.

Mrs. Elvin Shaffner has spent a day or two in Wolfville, where her son Ernest is at Acadia College. Mrs. Shaffner also went to Port Williams to see Mr. Owen Chipman. Mr. Paul Durling has apartments in Mrs. Wheelock's pleasant house on Main Street.

Mr. W. P. Morse went to Middleton and Nictaux. Mr. and Mrs. Burke spent a day in Bear River.

Mrs. I. Cloury, who is at present in Lawrencestown, has made many friends. We hope she will reside here permanently.

Mr. Israel Brown, of South Lawrencetown, met with a painful accident, slipped on ice and broke a rib. We are glad to hear he is doing well.

Miss Francis Duncan is slowly recovering from her severe illness. Mrs. Clarence Young has paid a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. McKewen.

Mr. Nobles, of Ottawa, was in town for a day or two. Mr. W. Corbett has been ill for some time.

Mr. B. Eaton and J. Whitman are dealers in pork and beef. This firm is shipping large quantities of stock and appear to be in a very flourishing condition.

Wood families is over. Large loads of logs for the saw mill, and cord wood are being brought into town. The ice harvest is being gathered. Store, householders, and all are getting supplied.

Work is going on, we hear, in various apple houses. It is reported that a meat shop will be opened in town. If so, a great want will be supplied.

The Lawrencetown Creamery turns out a supply of butter considered to be a very fine brand.

Through wind and storm the electric light plant has not failed to illuminate our darkness.

Mr. Clyde Bishop and his fine span of well kept horses are busy all the time. Horses are now holding their own as autos are out of the road.

Mrs. J. Hawkins, who has been in the house suffering from a cold, is better. Mrs. Wheelock is in Wolfville, a guest at the home of her son, Prof. Wheelock, of Acadia College.

A list of very interesting books for the library has been sent to the book seller.

The good ladies of the town have had a busy week. Baptist Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. Kinney. A large number attended. Mrs. L. Wallace sang. Miss Gould, the singer, who travels with Mr. and Mrs. Gipsy Hawkins, gave two impressive readings and sang some hymns that were greatly enjoyed. This lady speaks and sings clearly, every word distinctly heard. This meeting will be long remembered. Mrs. H. Freeman is the live President of the Society.

Monday, 5th, the ladies of the Methodist Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. J. B. Hall. Busy hands cut out garments, county aprons, quilts, and other useful articles, all being prepared for a sale, others for work done for those who in that way greatly help in the good work. All declare the sewing done at these parties is strong and lasting. More power to the faithful ones, who give up hours to this employment.

Monday evening Rev. J. Hawkins gave a lecture in Imperial Theatre on his travels abroad. A great number of people from the town and other places filled the hall. Those who attended were delighted with the pictures and interesting descriptions of places visited by the speaker. A lecture of deep interest "From Gipsy Boy to Preacher" will be given on Friday evening.

Wednesday, 7th, Methodist F. M. S. met at the home of Mrs. Elvin Shaffner. The President, Mrs. J. B. Hall, opened the meeting. Business was promptly done. Scripture reading,

Literary Society in A Splendid And Varied Programme

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL NOTES

Women's Institute—Paper On Unsupervised Noon Hour—Cooperation Between Institutes And The Schools.

The Literary Society met at the parsonage Monday evening, Feb. 5th. The subject for the evening was "In the Olden Days", and gave opportunity to feature many old time customs. Miss Irma Campbell as Aunt Jane of Kentucky and Miss Rita Marshall as Aunt James' niece, presented "Sally Ann's Experience", a most amusing and entertaining dialogue. A paper entitled "Paradise in the Olden Days" was given by the President. In this paper Mr. Longley pictured some of the old land marks many years removed. He told of the days of the early stage coach, the construction of the railroad with its first cars and engines, early methods of farming and home making, etc. To the younger members it was a very instructive and entertaining story while a few present could recall the facts and felt themselves carried back into childhood's golden days. "In the Long Ago", was sung by Miss Marion Bishop and Miss Bessie Durling. Mr. E. G. Morse sang "The Bare-Foot Trail" and "The Little Old Fashioned Town". Rev. W. Steadman Smith recited Whitcomb Riley's poem entitled "Oh, the Days Gone Bye". The entire program was given by candle light, while old candle sticks, a spinning-wheel and other antiques gave a realistic setting to the evening's entertainment.

The Women's Institute met with Mrs. Spruille, Thursday, Feb. 8th. After the business meeting a very interesting program was given in charge of Miss Emma Spruille.

A paper on "Unsupervised Noon Hour and School Visitation" was prepared and read by Miss Irma Campbell. Miss Campbell showed how institutes had co-operated all along the line with school trustees. Miss Marjorie Morse played a piano solo. A duet was sung by Miss Bessie Durling and Miss Marion Bishop. A Valentine surprise box was also much enjoyed. The regular monthly tea was served.

The Paradise B.Y.P.U. took charge of the prayer service at West Paradise Friday evening, the 7th. The service was led by the President, Mrs. Frank Balcom, who was assisted by the pastor and members of the union. The meeting was well attended and besides being a helpful one gave the young people another chance of getting together in service.

The Women's Missionary Society met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Elliott. The attendance was not large but the programme was an excellent one on "The Place and Work of Women in Missions". The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Millie Daniels.

We are sorry to find our beloved Mrs. David Freeman very poorly again.

Mrs. Hardy Layte left Paradise for No. Sydney Feb. 1st, to attend the funeral services of her mother. Miss Rita Marshall is spending the week-end with Miss Helen Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. Burke spent a day in Bear River.

Mrs. I. Cloury, who is at present in Lawrencestown, has made many friends. We hope she will reside here permanently.

MR. AND MRS. C. G. PIGGOTT CELEBRATE 55th ANNIVERSARY

Children And Grandchildren Present. An Unbroken Family Circle.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL NOTES

Women's Institute—Paper On Unsupervised Noon Hour—Cooperation Between Institutes And The Schools.

An event of not very common occurrence took place on Monday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Bent, School Street, when Mrs. Bent's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Piggott, celebrated their 55th anniversary. There were present their five children and their wives, also ten grandchildren and Mrs. John Lockett who was present at the wedding of the venerable and respected couple fifty-five years ago. The members of the family present with husbands and wives were respectively:—Mr. and Mrs. George Piggott and their children, Margaret and Harold; Mrs. J. F. Stephens, and children, Hilda, Myrtle and George; Mrs. M. T. Hopkins and children, Anna, Lydia and Marion; Mrs. C. L. Piggott and children, Iva and Carmen; Mrs. Charles Bent. All the grandchildren were present with one exception, Miss Alice Piggott, attending Mt. Allison University. A most unique matter in this family connection is the fact that all the children and grandchildren in it are living. The evening was spent very pleasantly and the hope was expressed that at least several similar gatherings would take place as the years go by.

LOCAL CURLERS AT WINDSOR

Bridgetown Club Send Three Rinks To Hants County

OCCASION MUCH ENJOYED

Windsor Won 43 to 19. Local Club Appreciate Hospitality Shown.

Three rinks of local curlers journeyed to Windsor on Monday and played a match with the devotees of the game in that town. Of course they met defeat but nevertheless made a most creditable showing when it is considered that the local club was formed only a few weeks ago and very few of the members had up to that time handled a stone. They returned well pleased with the trip and with the hospitality of the brothers of the Stone". The Windsor club served a nice supper in the club house and after the match this was followed by a luncheon. Next week it is expected the Windsor players will be here for a return game.

PRESENTATION TO MR. BROWN

Members of Bible Class Manifest Tangibly Their Appreciation Of His Teaching.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL NOTES

Women's Institute—Paper On Unsupervised Noon Hour—Cooperation Between Institutes And The Schools.

On Sunday morning Mrs. E. C. Young, on behalf of the members of Mr. Brown's Bible Class, presented him with a nice Bible, as a token of esteem in which he was held by them in which he was held by them as a teacher.

Mr. Brown made a suitable response, and now takes this medium of expressing his gratitude for the token, and his appreciation of their marked attendance and attention in the class.

The presentation was accompanied by the following address which testified to the esteem and appreciation felt for Mr. Brown by the various members of his class:—
Dear Mr. Brown:

The pleasant duty has been assigned me by the members of this class of presenting you this token of our lasting friendship and esteem.

What we offer you is a symbol of our feelings, and we know you will receive it kindly, as a simple indication of the esteem we each have for you.

You have made the lessons so pleasant, so interesting, that we will always look upon the hour spent in the Sabbath school as one of the most profitable and enjoyable of the week.

May you always be happy as you have endeavored to make us—by teaching us the blessed truths from the Book of books. Nothing better could be wished for the members of this class than they be always faithful to their duties to others as you have been in your duties to them.

In behalf of the members of the Bridgetown Baptist Bible Class.

Services in connection with the Revival Campaign here have been conducted with marked success.

Nearly 100 persons have already professed conversion in the revival meetings in the Baptist Church conducted by Mr. Torrie. It is expected there will be a large number baptized at the morning service next Sunday.

At the morning service last Sunday Mr. Torrie referred at length to the value of prayer. It was an old time gospel sermon much enjoyed. In the afternoon the Evangelist spoke on "Three W's of the Cross". The words "The Way and the Work". This discourse was also highly appreciated as well as that to the Baptist Brotherhood on "The Key Man". In the evening a stirring exhortation was delivered in which all who had not done so were strongly urged to seek the better and higher life.

Evangelists Alexander Torrie and Mrs. Torrie Go To Montreal From Bridgetown.

Evangelist Torrie and Mrs. Torrie close their revival mission in Bridgetown Sunday and will leave on Monday for Montreal, where they will open a revival campaign Thursday night, Feb. 21st.

The following are Mr. Torrie's subjects: Wednesday night, "Can a Man Know Positively He is Saved And Once Saved Can He Ever Be Lost"; Thursday night, "A Thrilling Story of How a Fallen Woman Was Saved"; Friday night, "Blind Bartimaeus"; Saturday night, "The Little Man Up a Tree"; Sunday 11 a.m., "Conversion Service"; 3 p.m., "How to Make a Success of the Christian Life"; Sunday p.m., "Story of How a Noted Criminal Escaped."

There will be special music at all these services by the choir and solos by Mrs. Torrie. Everybody welcome.

A Matter of Diet

A negro employed at one of the movie studios in Los Angeles was drafted by a director to do a novel comedy scene with a lion.

"You get into this bed," ordered the director, "and we'll bring the lion in and put him in bed with you. It will be a scream."

"Put a lion in bed with me!" yelled the negro. "No, sah! Not a-tall! I quits right here and now."

"But," protested the director, "this lion won't hurt you. This lion was brought up on milk."

"So was I bring up on milk," but I eats meat now."

Tuesday 20th, Rev. Dr. Boyce, President of King's University, will deliver a lecture—the third of the series—in the United Church School Room, on the subject "Dean Swift, His Life and Times."

LADIES TEAM IN DOUBLE HEADER

Bridgetown and Middleton Ladies Hockey Team Play Very Close Matches

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL NOTES

Women's Institute—Paper On Unsupervised Noon Hour—Cooperation Between Institutes And The Schools.

The first match took place in Bridgetown rink with an attendance of about 250 and the interest of the fans was aroused from the first and sustained till the last moment of the game. Both sides went in to win and were on the job all the time. The girls played sharp on the puck and there was no hanging back or waiting, no loafing but hard consistent work all thru. The spectators were delighted. Excitement was well sustained by spectacular rushes at times relieving the tension of close work.

Miss Jean Messenger who played a splendid game throughout had the honor of shooting the first goal. Miss Francis Fowler's rushes during this and other periods were outstanding features.

In the second period play was contested as closely as ever but no scoring done.

In the third period each team had the advantage of play varying and in this period Miss Margie Parker evened matters up by scoring for Middleton. The periods thus ended with honors even and it was decided not to continue for a decision leaving that to Monday night's return match at Middleton.

The line up was as follows: Middleton: Mrs. Tom Buckler Goal Jean Wagner Beatrice Gillivan Def. Doris Weara Olive Coleman Mrs. H. T. McKenzie Marg. Cumming, C. Jean Messenger Margie Parker R. W. Hattie Anderson Mary Cox L. W. Francis Fowler

Subs: Wilma Sweeney Carrie Ruffee Flora Parsons Hortense Griffin Mary Anthony Dorothy Little Aileen Miller

Mr. Grant acted as referee and handled the situation very nicely.

Bridgetown had discussed fine programme and the ladies of the hockey team express their highest appreciation of this programme which the team so kindly and gallantly tendered.

After the game the girls were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. H. T. McKenzie.

At Middleton the line ups were much the same except Bridgetown missed the services of Miss Francis Fowler. The game was well attended and sharply contested. The home team girls in the first and last periods particularly bombarded Bridgetown goal heavily. Most of the scoring was done in the first period. Middleton ladies scored twice while Miss Jean Messenger shot a goal for Bridgetown.

The second period some fast and tight hockey but no score.

In the third period Miss Doris Weara broke through and scored the second goal for Bridgetown, making the tally two all. A few seconds before the end of the period Middleton put in the winning goal. After the game a very enjoyable party was much appreciated at the home of Mr. O. P. Goucher.

During the period preceding the game the girls were guests at the American House where Mine Host McNeil placed everything freely at the disposal of the ladies. This kindness was greatly appreciated. In every way the girls speak most highly of their reception in Middleton.
