

How about Your Library ?

We take it for granted YOUR Sunday-school, of course, has a Library. Is it up to the times ? Are the new books to be found on its shelves ? Have you sought to make it popular ? Does it need replenishing ? Are you considering another purchase ? If so, kindly give attention to our facilities of supply.

We are pleased to have inquiries by letter, or visits from those who can come and make their own selection from our shelves. We have a new and complete Catalogue that every school should have. Our books may be had direct of us or through any Bookseller. If you go to your local Bookseller ask him for our Catalogue. We have a great many books of OUR OWN PUBLICATION by "Pansy," Annie S. Swan and other popular writers, foreign and Canadian, which are among the best that could be placed on library shelves.

Write us for Catalogue and terms.

A VETERAN OF 1812 :

THE LIFE OF

COL. JAMES FITZGIBBON.

BY

MARY AGNES FITZGIBBON.

Cloth, with Portrait and Illustrations, $1.00.

The life of this brave and good officer—a veritable soldier of fortune—with its thrilling adventures and tales of daring in the war of 1812, is full of interest for Canadian readers, young and old.

A little girl of 12 years, daughter of an officer in the Mounted Police at Battleford, N.W.T., writes as follows of the "Veteran of 1812": "I have read it pretty thoroughly now, and wish that the history of Canada they make us learn was a little more like it, and not so uninteresting."
