

by the State Department, sample included in docket "U.S. Government Publications".

Use of Pensioners After Retirement:

The more extensive and imaginative use of External's people after retirement should be one of the principal components of any retirement programme put into operation by the Department. This is developed in Section III (d).