

3. If a specific request is made, the requested State may grant the witness or expert an advance. The amount of the advance shall be endorsed on the request or on the summons and shall be refunded by the requesting State.

Article 11

TRANSFER OF PRISONERS

1. A person in custody whose personal appearance as a witness or for the purpose of confrontation, or whose assistance to the competent authorities is applied for by the requesting State, shall, subject to the provisions of Article 9, in so far as these are applicable, be temporarily transferred to the territory of the requesting State, provided that the person shall be sent back within the period stipulated by the requested State.

2. The transfer may be refused:

a) if the person in custody does not consent;

b) if the person's presence is necessary at a penal proceeding pending in the territory of the requested State;

c) if the transfer is liable to prolong the person's detention; or

d) if there are other overriding grounds for not transferring the person to the territory of the requesting State.

3. The person transferred shall remain in custody in the territory of the requesting State, unless the requested State applies for that person's release.
