

Development is evident in our bilateral, regional and

EXPECTED OUTCOME	NOTES
• implementation of the MDP on water, especially in Africa. • Canadian leadership and increased influence internationally on issues of sustainable human settlements and good governance.
• Arctic Council able to access relevant and timely scientific research and traditional knowledge necessary to advance SD in the Arctic. • support for initiatives that assess the consequences of climate change on the Arctic and Indigenous Peoples (WSSD 2002 commitment). • Canadian students graduating with a Bachelor of Circumpolar Studies, and an enhanced learning base and network of individuals in the Arctic with knowledge of sustainable development issues. • ensures that similar goals and objectives are articulated in both the Canadian and European Action Plans in order to facilitate cooperation on northern initiatives. • improved Russian capacity to deal with environmental, social and economic issues.	