

3. The documents described in the preceding paragraph shall be issued to qualified citizens by the other Party's diplomatic mission or consular post where the application was submitted pursuant to Article 3.

ARTICLE 5

Authorization to Work

1. The Republic of Slovenia shall issue to Canadian citizens qualified to benefit from the application of this Agreement and who have been issued a visa type D pursuant to Article 4, paragraph 2:

- (a) in cases specified in Article 2(a) and (b), after their arrival in the Republic of Slovenia and without reference to the labour market situation, a personal work permit for a specified employer valid for the duration of the validity of the above-mentioned visa; or
- (b) in cases specified in Article 2(c), after their arrival in the Republic of Slovenia and without reference to labour market situation, a personal work permit for employment valid throughout the territory of Slovenia for the duration of the validity of the above-mentioned visa.

2. Canada shall issue to Slovene citizens qualified to benefit from the application of this Agreement and who have been issued a letter of introduction pursuant to Article 4, paragraph 2:

- (a) in cases specified in Article 2 (a) and (b), upon their arrival in Canada, irrespective of the status of the national employment market in Canada, a work permit for a specified employer valid for the entire authorized length of their stay; or
- (b) in cases specified in Article 2 (c), upon their arrival in Canada, irrespective of the status of the national employment market in Canada, a work permit valid for any employer for the entire authorized length of their stay.

ARTICLE 6

General Provisions

1. Citizens of either Party who are benefiting from the application of this Agreement are subject to the laws and regulations in force in the host country, particularly with regard to the practice of regulated professions.