

W. Kenneth Wardroper (59) originally from Duncan, British Columbia, to be Ambassador to the Kingdom of Norway and concurrently accredited to the Republic of Iceland.

Mr. Wardroper (B. Comm. University of British Columbia) joined the Department of External Affairs in 1947 and served abroad in Los Angeles, Accra, Helsinki and Islamabad. He was Canadian member of the Board of Directors of the Asian Development Bank in Manila from 1966 to 1969. In 1972 he was appointed High Commissioner to Nigeria, and since 1975 has been at headquarters assigned to the position of Director General of the Bureau of Communications and General Services.

He replaces A. G. Campbell who will retire this summer.

* * * * *