

December 27th, 1930.

J. Herbert Burgy, Esq.
University of Illinois,
Urbana, Illinois.

Dear Sir,

In reply to yours of December 23rd,
we shall have no opening that would interest you in McGill University, either in the summer session or during the academic year.

You have had an interesting teaching experience and I hope that a position offers which will be attractive to you.

Yours faithfully,

Assistant to the Principal.