MEMOIRS

SIR JOHN BERKLEY.

IN the Year 1647, her Majesty, and his Highness the Prince of Wales, were pleased to send me into Holland, to condole the death of the Prince of Orange; and having performed that office, I returned with Mr. John and Mr. William Ashburnham, to France, by the way of Calais: where we met with the news of his Majesty's being seized by one Cornet Joyce, in Holmby House, from whence he was carried with a guard of 400 horse, towards the army, the Cornet producing no authority, whereby to warrant this proceeding. The next Post brought us advertisement to Calais, that his Majesty was well-received by the officers and soldiers of the Army, and that there were great hopes conceived, that they would both concur to establish his Majesty in his just Rights. From Calais we went to Rouen, where we met a confirmation of this intelligence, and heard withal, that one Sir Edward Ford (who was brother-in-law to Commissary-general Ireton) was sent, by her Majesty and his Highness the Prince of Wales, into England, to discover the intentions of the Army, and to promote an agreement between his Ma jesty and them. From Rouen, we went to St. Germain's; where, we were no sooner arrived, but we heard that Mr. Denham (who, during his imprisonment, had contracted a great familiarity with Mr. Peters, a preacher. and a powerful person in the Army,) was dispatchedens, a Commission to the like effect, with that of Sir Edward Ford. As I was going-up to her Majesty, I met, accidentally, with my Lord Culpepper, who scarce had saluted me, before he told me, that I must prepare myself immediately for another journey, her Majesty being resolved o send me into England, after Sir Edward Ford and 2 A 2 Mr.
