Commercial Summary.

SOME DISTANT readers of the JOURNAL OF COMMERCE concerned themselves very little about the prediction that the end of the world was at hand last Sunday; we refer to those, and their names are "Thousands," who continue to contemplate unmoved the date of '79 or '80 upon the address label of their papers.

The Merchants' Bank of Halifax has declared a semi-annual dividend of 3½ per cent.

The iron foundry of Messrs. Burrow, Stewart, & Milne, Hamilton, which was almost destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, is again in active operation.

Messrs. Ryerson, Moses & Co., merchants and shipowners, of Yarmouth, N.S., have assigned to Mr. Aikins, of Spinney, Aikins & Co., of the same place. Liabilities, $180,000.

The estate of G. G. Cobban & Co., of Toronto, picture frame gilders, recently referred to, has been purchased by the bookkeeper's father-in-law, and will probably return to the creditors some 30 cents in the dollar.
