

FATHER J. C.

man, whom God gives me to know, had met with him long years ago, his spirit was strong and the flesh near so I have wandered so far from the trail. that I know him, and since he knows I seek me and mind me, and when I'm at his arms beat against me, he'll watch on the and
and beacon me back to the land.
